Blind date

This week

Sally Fox, 25, tennis coach meets Dominic Evo, 29, actor.

They met in a Chinese restaurant called Ping Pong. Will they ever meet again?

Sally talking about Dominic

Dominic talking about Sally

First impressions? He was friendly, tall, and attractive. We laughed together from the start, I think because we were both a bit nervous.

What did you talk about? So many things – places we want to travel to, such as South America. Sport, of course. Unfortunately Dom doesn't play much sport, but he's going to run the marathon this year. His acting – I don't often go to the theatre so I didn't have a lot to say.

Any difficult moments? I couldn't decide how to greet him when we first met. I shook his hand and he tried to kiss my cheek. That was a bit embarrassing, but we laughed about it.

Good table manners? Yes, very. He couldn't use chopsticks, but he tried.

Best thing about him? He was chatty and funny. He didn't just talk about himself, he asked me questions. It was nice to meet a guy who wasn't crazy about football.

Did you go on somewhere? Just to the square next to the restaurant. There was a piano with a notice 'Please play me' – so Dom did. He can play the piano very well. It was a great way to end the evening. He lives out of town, so he went to get his train.

Marks out of 10?
I liked him more and more as the evening progressed. 8.

Would you like to meet again?
Maybe. We swapped numbers, so we'll see.

First impressions? She smiled a lot. She has a lovely smile and amazing green eyes. I think she was a bit nervous. I loved her red dress – it was very red indeed.

What did you talk about? Everything – travel, we both want to visit Chile; cooking, I love it, Sally hates it; sport, I hate it, Sally loves it, but I am training to run the marathon for charity; the theatre, I have a small part in a small theatre at the moment.

Any difficult moments? Not really. Oh yes, I could see that the waiter knew it was a blind date. That was embarrassing.

Good table manners? Very good. I like a girl who enjoys her food and she could use chopsticks. I was impressed with that.

Best thing about her? The green eyes! And she was really easy to talk to. She was interested and interesting. She didn't just talk about sport.

Did you go on somewhere? Well, we didn't go far. We found a piano – they are all over the city at the moment with signs saying 'Please play me'. I played, but I'm not very good. Sally sang, she can't sing at all. We made a terrible noise! It was good fun. Then she caught the bus home.

Marks out of 10? She can't sing, but I like her. 9

Would you like to meet again? Definitely. She left very hurriedly, but she has my number.

All the major supermarkets sell his products. The business is growing fast – four flavours at the moment, but more on the way. And he has a charity that organizes huge tea parties for old people with live music and dancing.

'At the moment I'm very busy. I'm writing a cookbook. I've got an idea for a TV programme. And we're trying to get into the American market.'

Emergency exit for flight attendant who lost his cool

Flight attendant Steven Slater made an emergency exit from an Airbus after he had an argument with a passenger.

The incident happened at New York's JFK Airport soon after the JetBlue flight from Pittsburgh landed.

As the Airbus A320 was taxiing slowly on the runway, a passenger stood up to get her luggage. Mr Slater told her to sit down, but she refused. The businesswoman was taking her case out of the overhead locker when it hit Mr Slater on the head.

He started bleeding, and it was then that the flight attendant lost his temper. He marched to the front of the cabin and spoke furiously over the plane's PA system, saying, 'That's enough! After 28 years in this business, I quit!'

He then took two beers from a fridge, opened the door and activated the plane's emergency chute and jumped onto it. Mr Slater then ran to his car and drove home. Police arrested Mr Slater at his home a short time later.

- When and where did the incident happen?

My Grandfather's

My grandfather lived until he was 101 years old. He was a shopkeeper. He had a fish and chip shop in an old village near a big, industrial town in the north of England. He had a son and a daughter. The daughter is my mother. The family lived above the shop.

In those days, fish and chips was the most popular dish in the whole country. My grandfather made the best fish and chips in the area. People came to the village by bus especially to get them.

Everybody loved my grandfather because he was such a happy and contented man. He worked hard, but once a week he closed the shop and went to have lunch (not fish and chips!) with friends in the local pub. He didn't retire until he was 78 years old. He said that the secret to a long life was a glass of whisky before going to bed and lots of fish and chips.

Dinner in the Sky

FACT FILE

- 50m up in the air
- a table 9m x 5m
- diners hang from a crane
- there isn't a loo

Dinner in the Sky is for people who want more than a little excitement when they go out to eat. They sit at a huge table which hangs from a crane fifty metres in the air. It's not a good idea for people who are afraid of heights or for those who don't have much money. It costs £10,000. The twenty-two diners wear seat belts and relax and enjoy the views while the chefs prepare the finest food in front of them. The restaurant opened in Belgium in 2006, but now has branches in Paris, Dubai, Florida, and Las Vegas.

David Ghysels, the Belgian organizer says, 'We realized that people were bored with going to the same old restaurants. They wanted to try something different. The sky's the limit with us!'

The crane is checked carefully before every sitting. The table is 9m x 5m and weighs six tonnes. In the centre there is a sunken platform for the chef and two waiters. The food is delicious, but most guests don't feel like eating until after a few drinks! Then they also get the courage to look down at the ground where tiny people are looking up in amazement and waving.

Dinner in the Sky is very exciting and the food is good, but there are problems. For example, even in quiet weather conversation is difficult because of the wind. Guests shout to each other across the table. Also, the loo. You can't go to the loo until the table descends again. Difficult for some! But later, back on earth, after a visit to the loo, the guests have a great experience to talk about.

For hundreds of years when tired travellers stopped on their journeys, there were only a few places to eat and drink. Nowadays, streets are lined with restaurants, cafés, and snack bars, but some people want something more unusual.

Ithaa Undersea Restaurant

FACT FILE

- 5m under the sea
- a huge glass ceiling
- diners wear formal clothes
- they eat face-to-face with sharks

Welcome to the Maldives and the first underwater restaurant in the world. The Ithaa Undersea

Restaurant on Rangali Island sits five metres below the Indian Ocean. Ithaa means 'pearl' in the Maldivian language and the guests are like pearls in a glass oyster.

It's not cheap – about £160 for dinner – and there aren't many seats, only a dozen, so it's not easy to get a reservation even if you've got enough money. However, it is easy to get to. You don't need to be a swimmer or a scuba diver, but you do have to wear formal clothes. You simply descend to the restaurant down some spiral stairs.

The manager, Carlton Schieck says, 'We have used aquarium technology to put diners face-to-face with the fish. Our guests are speechless at the colour and beauty of the underwater world. They can enjoy the views and the fine food and not get their feet wet.'

The views are spectacular. In the crystal-blue sea, a few metres from your head, there are sharks, sting rays, turtles, and thousands of tropical fish looking at you as you eat. There is also a fabulous coral garden to add to the colour. The experience is both romantic and magical – and you can guess what's on the menu!

The restaurant opened in 2004 and cost over £3 million to build. In April 2010 it also became a hotel. If you want more excitement and would like to sleep underwater with the fish, you can do this for just £7,500 a night!

However, an underwater building can't last forever. It is thought that it will have a life of about twenty years.

's Baggers Restaurant

FACT FILE

- no waiters
- food lands from above
- email as you eat
- eat now, pay later
- no tips

Germany likes to call itself The Land of Ideas and 's Baggers Restaurant in Nuremberg is certainly an amazing idea. It's a restaurant with no waiters to serve you. You do everything for yourself with touch-screen TVs and computers. It opened in 2007 and is the first automated restaurant in the world.

When you arrive you pick up an 's Baggers credit card and go to sit at a big, round table with three or four computer screens. You put your card into the computer and order your meal by touching the pictures on the screen.

You don't see the chefs. They are in the kitchen high above you. They're real men, not machines (at least not yet). The food is all freshly cooked and when it is ready it is put in a pot and sent down a spiral tube where it lands on the table in front of you. This gives a new meaning to fast food! The TVs are connected to the Internet, so if you get bored while waiting, you can send and receive emails and text messages.

A businessman called Michael Mack had the idea for 's Baggers. He decided that waiters were unnecessary and too expensive. 'You don't need waiters to run to and from customers taking orders to the kitchen and back.' Mack is planning to open more restaurants and now has the patent for the idea.

The meals are not too expensive – about €8 (£6) a portion. And if you want you can pay by direct debit at the end of the month. And something else that saves money – there is, of course, no need to leave a tip!

Palina

In the early hours of April 26 1986, the worst nuclear accident in history occurred in the Ukrainian city of Chernobyl.

Two years later and two hundred miles away, Palina Yanachkina was born in the village of Polessye, in northern Belarus. Like many others in her village she had a lot of health problems and her future didn't look good. Then a holiday in Ireland changed everything.

- the girl with two families

The Yanachkina family

The Quaid family

Life in the village of Polessye

The nuclear disaster changed the lives of everybody in the village. It took away all hope for the future. However, when Palina was born in 1988 her parents did their best to give her and her brother Micha a good life. They were farmers and before the accident, sold meat, fruit, and vegetables to the international market. After the disaster, no one wanted to buy anything.

The villagers were often ill and depressed. When Palina was eight, experts from the capital, Minsk, came to her school and did health tests on the children. The experts told them to stop picking the mushrooms in the forest because they were badly contaminated. When she was ten the experts returned with news of a charity that helped children like her have holidays abroad. They asked Palina if she would like to go to Ireland and stay with a family in Limerick. Palina felt a bit nervous about leaving home and she didn't speak a word of English, but she decided to go.

Life in Ireland

When Palina met her Irish family, she liked them immediately. John and Fiona Quaid and their two children, Chloe, three, and Evan, six, gave Palina a warm welcome. At first the only way to communicate was with a phrase book, but soon she became good friends with the children. They didn't need language to play.

So many things in Ireland surprised Palina. They visited a shopping mall and she couldn't believe her eyes, there was so much to choose from. She only knew her little village shop. She missed her family, but couldn't speak to them because they didn't have a phone.

By the time she went home, Palina could speak a few words of English and was delighted when the Quaids invited her back for Christmas. After that she started to visit the family twice a year and often spent three months with them in summer.

Palina today: 'I'm so lucky!'

When Palina was in her teens the experts returned to Polessye and checked her again. They couldn't believe how healthy she was. Her time in Ireland was improving her health and her English.

In her free time Palina helped run the farm. However, she didn't want to continue doing this for the rest of her life. She dreamed of becoming a doctor, but had no money to study. John and Fiona understood her problem. They offered to pay for her to study in Ireland and said she could stay with them full-time. Palina was amazed and delighted. It was hard for her parents, but they wanted the best for their daughter. Palina is now studying biochemistry at the University of Limerick. She hopes to study medicine one day and return to Belarus to help those who are not as lucky as she is.

The world in

London is the most multicultural city in the world. On an ordinary street in north London, people from across the globe live and work side by side. Here on Stroud Green Road there are Turks, Chinese, Afghans, Pakistanis, Vietnamese, Colombians, Polish, Kenyans, and French.

What are the thoughts of the people who live here? What do they think of the land they now call home?

PROFILE

Name Burkan Mehmet, 41
Born Istanbul, Turkey
Business The Sunflower Gallery

“ This area is very cosmopolitan, and that's why I love it. When I first came to England in 1986, I thought it would be like New York, but it was much quieter. I didn't know anybody, and I wanted to go home.

I came here to study business at college. First I had a restaurant. Now I run this florist's shop. My customers come from so many different cultures – I learn something new every day.

What I like about England is that there's a system that works. Things are more organized here. I'm a British citizen now. When I go back to Turkey, I see how I've changed. Life in Turkey is faster, and more hectic than here.

I would like to go back to Istanbul one day. But for now, I love London. I'm married, and I have a daughter, Ceren. I wouldn't think of living anywhere else. ”

“I was a doctor in China. My daughter wanted to study in England, so we moved here in 2000.

Life for us here was impossible for the first few years. It was hard to find work. It was also difficult to talk to people. But things got easier as my English improved. People in the West are now more interested in herbal medicine.

My daughter is married and has a son and lives here. I see her every day. That is Chinese culture – children and parents stay together.

This is the big difference for us. In China we are surrounded by family. Here I feel like a foreigner. I miss my friends and colleagues, and my wife is very close to her family back home.

My daughter is settled here, but I think my wife and I will return to China. We'll see.”

PROFILE

Name Luz-Elena Lamprea, 41
Born Tuluá, Colombia
Business Los Guadalete restaurant

“My parents divorced, and my mother came to England to make a new start. I was 19.

For me it was an enormous shock. When you are in Colombia, you think everything in Europe is wonderful. I arrived in September, the weather was awful and the skies were grey. London wasn't nearly as exciting as I thought.

I spent a year studying English, then fell in love. The marriage didn't work, but I had two children, Jennifer and Julian.

I bought this restaurant. It's becoming more and more popular, especially with Europeans. I love my work. It's the most interesting job in the world. I'm not just serving food, I'm giving people an experience of my culture.

I'm so thankful now that I came here. There is more opportunity. I go to Colombia every year, but when I'm there I miss England. I really love being here.”

PROFILE

Name Mehul Shah, 51
Born Nyeri, Kenya
Business Dental surgery

“I always wanted to study medicine. I had an uncle in London, so when I was 16, I came here.

It was very hard. I remember the drive from the airport. The roads were so much bigger and busier than in Kenya. It was summer, and the weather was lovely. But then of course the first winter came. It was the coldest winter for years!

My patients are of all nationalities, all religions, all colours. I love it. I'm seeing the third generation of the same families.

This is a democratic country. You're free here, you can say and think, and do what you like.

England is a welcoming society. My children were born here. All their friends are English. I feel British now. I became a British citizen 24 years ago. Britain gave me an education and the opportunity to better myself. This is my country, my home.”

— Living History —

Chatsworth House has been home to the same family since 1549. In that time the house has welcomed kings and queens, prime ministers and politicians, and more recently bands and film crews.

The 12th Duke of Devonshire, Peregrine Cavendish, and his wife Amanda have lived at Chatsworth since 2006.

The Duke inherited the house on the death of his father in 2004. He says:

‘My family has lived here for over 450 years. The estate has been passed down the Cavendish family for 15 generations, and I now have the pleasure and responsibility to look after it for the next generation.’

Visitors often see him walking through the house and garden when it is open to the public. He says, ‘Chatsworth is a magical place, and I feel lucky to be able to share it with all of our visitors.’

The most beautiful house in England

Chatsworth is situated in the hills of Derbyshire, in the Midlands. Many people say it is the most beautiful house in England. It has nearly 300 rooms (with 17 staircases and 26 baths) and is set in 35,000 acres of land. It needs 500 staff to run. The art collection includes paintings by Raphael, van Dyck, and Rembrandt. The whole estate is worth about £500 million.

It costs approximately £5m a year to run Chatsworth, so the house has been open to the paying public since 1949, and in 2010 there were around 600,000 visitors. There are often art exhibitions, flower shows, horse trials, and sometimes concerts in the grounds.

The house also earns money from the film industry. It is a favourite location for period films. Chatsworth was used as Mr Darcy's house in the 2005 film of Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice, and Keira Knightley also starred in The Duchess here in 2008.

£5m a year to run

A house fit for a king!

Most English country houses were built during the 17th and 18th centuries by the aristocracy. The Duke likes to explain the historical background to Chatsworth. 'Visitors arrive, see this huge building in this vast parkland, and wonder why it is so big. The reason is that my ancestors built a house fit for a king. It was designed to impress, and to persuade royalty to visit.'

In 1686 the first Duke built a magnificent suite for a royal visit from King William and Queen Mary. Unfortunately they didn't come. However, much later Edward VII was a frequent visitor between 1901 and 1910. George V and Queen Mary visited in 1913.

Many of the Cavendish family were politicians. One, William Cavendish, was Prime Minister from 1756–1757. Today, families like the Cavendish's no longer have the same political influence, but their estates are still huge.

Problems

Dear Annie!

annie@problemforum.com

1 No time for fun!

I'm 14 and I do gymnastics. I have to train 30 hours a week because my mum and my coach want me to try for the next Olympics. I like gymnastics but I have no time for anything else in my life. My school friends tell me that I am missing all the fun. What should I do? Tracy

2 I've lost my husband to a game

My husband started playing online computer games last year. Since then he has lost all interest in everything else, even me and our baby. He starts playing as soon as he gets up, and begins again when he gets back from work. He gets angry if I talk to him about it. What should I do? Paula

3 I get so nervous

I'm in the army, and in my job I have to give talks to large groups of people. The last time was a disaster because I was so nervous. My hands shook and I spoke too fast. How can I control my nerves? What should I do? Mark

4 I hate him!

I'm 11 and my brother is 15. I think my mum and dad love him more than me. They've just bought him the best computer – they say he has to have it for his exams. I don't even have my own mobile phone, AND I have to wear all his old clothes! Billy

Advice from Annie!

a Dear _____
Good preparation is the answer. You must prepare well and practise a lot. The first 30 seconds are the most important. You should begin with a personal story. It will relax you and the audience.

b Dear _____
More and more people worldwide have become addicted to this. He must get professional help, but this is difficult because he won't accept that he has a problem. I think you should show him this letter, and visit the website olganon.org.

c Dear _____
These feelings are very common between brothers and sisters. I'm sure your parents love you and your brother just the same, so you shouldn't worry about this. When you're older, you'll get your own phone – and your own clothes!

d Dear _____
The fact is, that to get to the top in sport you have to train very hard indeed. You should talk to someone else about your doubts. I don't think you should listen to just your friends.

PRACTICE

1 Work in small groups. Give advice to people with these problems.

6 I fell over and I think I've twisted my ankle.

7 My computer's behaving very strangely.

8 My car's making a funny noise.

T 8.5 Listen and compare your answers.

If you want to ...

... learn English,
... be successful,
... keep fit,

you have to you don't have to you should you shouldn't you must

SONS

THE CAFEARO FAMILY

THE TIBBETT FAMILY

AND DAUGHTERS

Is an all-boy family very different from having an all-girl family? What is it like to be totally outnumbered by the opposite sex in your own home? To find the answer, TV's Channel 4 asked Marianne and Jon Tibbett, the parents of four daughters to swap homes with Karen and Steve Cafearo, who have four sons.

Karen talks about her family

Karen Cafearo, 43, lives with husband, Steve, 49, a manager at Jaguar Cars, and their sons Francis (17), Alex (15), Joseph (11), and Samuel (9). Karen is an accountant. She says:

'I married Steve when I was 21. I'm the oldest of four children and I always wanted a big family. Also, I wanted a son for Steve, he's very sporty, loves his football, so he's delighted to have four sons. The boys love kicking balls and racing around on their bikes. They don't see danger. Steve says I mustn't worry. He says boys will be boys. Sometimes I feel left out of all their sport, but I'm pleased that I don't have to watch football in the pouring rain. The boys see everything in black and white. I should learn not to ask them about their lives and feelings.'

'Dunno' is their usual answer.
I have often wondered what a family of girls would be like.'

THE SWAP

Karen and Steve Cafearo go to the TIBBETT HOME

When Karen and Steve arrived at the Tibbett family home, she had to laugh. There were piles of pink ballet shoes and riding boots all over the floor. Karen says:

'The four girls are as passionate about dancing and horse-riding as my boys are about football and rugby, but I was shocked by the mess. I have strict rules for my boys. They can't wear their shoes upstairs and they have to tidy their rooms. The girls were so excited to see us, they wanted to chat and ask us questions. It was fantastic, but exhausting. They came to help me cook in the kitchen, they didn't want to play in the garden. I think girls need more attention than boys. Another shock for me was how nice the girls were to each other. The boys love each other but they fight and fall out endlessly.'

The thing I loved most was shopping with the girls. We had great fun. I miss that with boys. Poor Steve had to carry the bags. I saw a big change in him. With girls he was so sensitive and gentle.

I loved the chats with the girls, but I also like my own space. I think girls are harder work.'

Marianne talks about her family

Marianne Tibbett, 38, lives with husband, Jon, 45, and their daughters Annabelle (14), Francesca (11), Genevieve (9), and Catherine (8). They run a haulage business together. Marianne says:

'Jon and I met and married within sixteen months. He was 29. People often ask us if we have so many children because we were trying for a boy. But this isn't true. I'm an only child and it was my dream to have a big family. We were delighted when Annabelle arrived and equally delighted when Francesca arrived three years later, followed by Genevieve and Catherine. Jon loves having four girls, he is their superhero dad!'

Our daughters are fabulous. Most of the time they get on really well together.

They're a chatty group! But we were fascinated to try living with boys.'

THE SWAP

Marianne and Jon Tibbett go to the CAFEARO HOME

Marianne expected the Cafearo boys to be loud and boisterous. In fact on the first day they were very quiet and polite. Marianne says:

'They even took their shoes off before going upstairs. However, I soon realised why Karen and Steve had to have such strict house rules. The boys were constantly on the go and wildly competitive. They raced around the garden and dived into the pool. There was a fight between one of the little boys and his big brother. I tried to make them apologize, which is what I do with my girls, but it just made them more angry. The little one went away by himself, cried, then forgot all about it.'

But the biggest shock for me was the change in my gentle husband. He became more and more competitive. We all went go-karting. We've never done this with our family. Jon joined in with the boys and it was clear he wanted to win as much as they did. He had great fun and I loved seeing him so happy. I know he would love to have had a son to continue the business. But now we've seen the reality of having boys! They're exhausting. I honestly think they are much harder work than girls.'

LONDON 1886

AAARGH!

1 Late one night, a lawyer, Gabriel Utterson, was walking home through dark, silent streets when he saw a man attacking a woman. Utterson ran after him and caught him. The man's name was Mr Hyde, and he looked ugly and evil.

4 A year passed. One night an old man was murdered as he was walking home. A maid witnessed the crime and recognized the killer. Mr Hyde had struck again! The police went looking for Hyde, but he had disappeared.

7 Utterson and the servants broke down the door. Mr Hyde was lying dead on the floor. He had taken poison. But why was he wearing Dr Jekyll's clothes? And where was the doctor? Were Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde one and the same person?

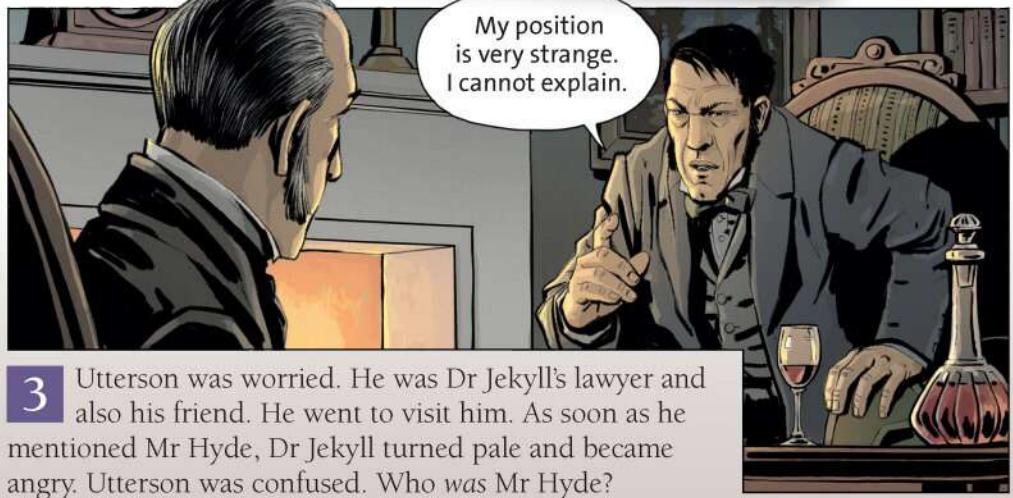

10 But after a time Jekyll found that he liked changing into Mr Hyde. He enjoyed being bad. He became more and more violent and cruel. He took pleasure in hurting innocent people.

of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde

by Robert Louis Stevenson

2 Mr Hyde showed no regret for what he had done. To buy the woman's silence, he wrote her a cheque. Utterson noticed that the cheque was signed in the name of Dr Jekyll, a well-known and well-respected man.

3 Utterson was worried. He was Dr Jekyll's lawyer and also his friend. He went to visit him. As soon as he mentioned Mr Hyde, Dr Jekyll turned pale and became angry. Utterson was confused. Who was Mr Hyde?

5 Again, Utterson went to visit his friend Dr Jekyll. He suspected that Dr Jekyll had helped Mr Hyde to escape. When questioned, the doctor replied in a strange, wild voice that Mr Hyde had gone forever.

6 Over the next few weeks Dr Jekyll's behaviour became more and more unusual. He locked himself in his laboratory and refused to open the door. His servants were worried. When they heard his voice, it sounded different. They asked Utterson for help.

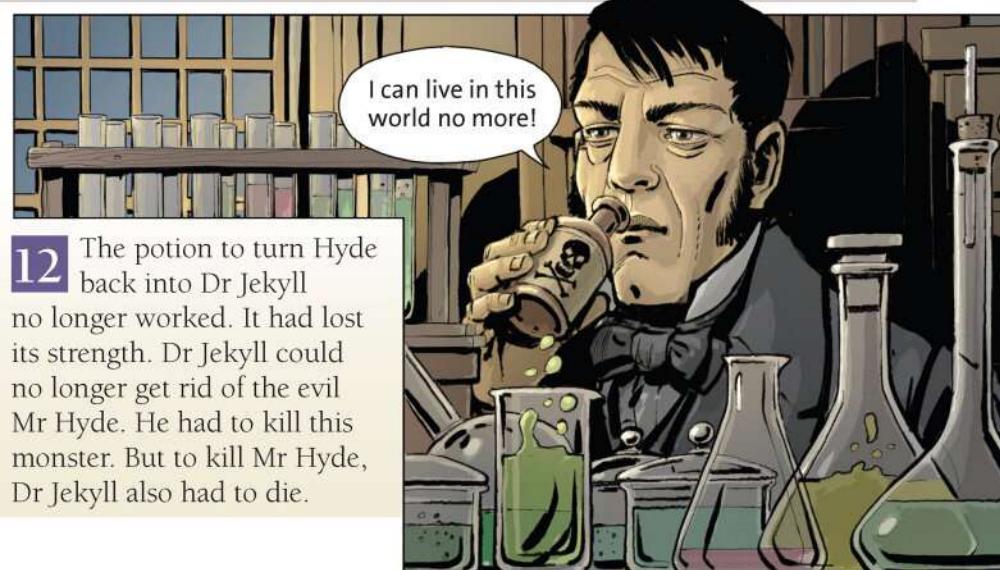

8 On the desk was a letter addressed to Mr Utterson. In it, Dr Jekyll tried to explain himself. He said he believed that inside every human being there was a good side and an evil side.

9 Jekyll had created a potion. When he drank it, his whole body changed. The good, kind doctor became cruel, ugly, and evil. He called this other man Mr Hyde. To change back, he had to drink another potion.

11 Finally Dr Jekyll couldn't control Mr Hyde anymore. He began to change into this monster even without taking the potion. Jekyll hoped and prayed that Hyde would disappear. But Hyde always returned.

12 The potion to turn Hyde back into Dr Jekyll no longer worked. It had lost its strength. Dr Jekyll could no longer get rid of the evil Mr Hyde. He had to kill this monster. But to kill Mr Hyde, Dr Jekyll also had to die.

► WRITING Discussing pros and cons p115

<http://www...>

No technology has evolved so much in so little time as the Internet. We not only shop, bank, work, and meet people online, but we share what we are doing at any given moment with such sites as Facebook and Twitter. So how did all this begin?

The first Internet café

A café with full Internet access (sometimes called a Cybercafé) was designed in early 1994 by Ivan Pope. He was asked to develop an Internet event for an arts weekend in London. Pope created a café with Internet access from the tables.

Inspired by this, the first commercial Internet café, called Cyberia, was opened later that year in central London. It quickly became the fashionable place to be seen.

Internet cafés soon extended across the world under a variety of names, for example, the Binary Café in Canada, CompuCafé in Finland, PCBang in South Korea, and the @Café in New York.

Cafés have always been places to exchange information, chat to friends, read newspapers, and play games. Internet cafés were a natural evolution of this. Now, people can connect to the Internet in any café using their own laptops and iPhones. There is less need for the Internet café.

Five Internet firsts

The first search engine

For many people, using search engines has become a routine part of their lives. But how did they begin?

In 1989 a young computer scientist from Barbados, Alan Emtage, was studying at Montreal's McGill University in Canada. He built a single, easily searchable database for students to access information. This created a lot of interest and Alan was joined by two colleagues, Mike Parker and Bill Heelan, who helped develop the system. They called it 'Archie'. Why was it named Archie? Simply the word 'archive' without the 'v'.

Emtage found himself at the heart of an Internet revolution. It didn't take long for search engines to become big business. Many more followed such as Excite in 1993, created by six Stanford University students, Yahoo in 1994, and Lycos also in 1994. With 60 million documents this was the largest of its time until Google was launched in 1997. Google now has 620 million visitors every day.

What exactly are computer viruses? They are simply computer programs that replicate themselves again and again. This ability was predicted as early as 1949 by a German mathematician, John von Neumann. It is generally believed that the very first was a virus called Creeper. It was detected on ARPANET (the forerunner of the Internet) in the early 1970s. It was written by an engineer called Bob Thomas from Cambridge, Massachusetts in 1971. However, the Creeper was not a bad virus, it did not damage computers. When a machine was infected a message simply appeared on the screen saying 'I'm the Creeper, catch me if you can!' More damaging viruses appeared in the 1980s with the spread of personal computers.

In 1986, Brain was the first virus to infect PCs; in 1991, Michelangelo was the first to make international news; in 2000, Love Letter broke hearts by sending emails saying 'I love you' to tens of millions of computers, and in 2007, Storm Worm spread with a message saying '230 dead as storm batters Europe!'

The first blog

The first ever blogger may never be identified, but the most likely candidate is an American journalist, Justin Hall. He began blogging in 1994 (before the word 'blog' existed) with a website called 'Justin's Links from the Underground'. At first his website just gave rather boring information about the Internet. But soon his main topic became his personal life. He wrote openly about his relationships, his passions, his plans and fears. More and more readers were attracted to his site, fascinated by his daily blogs. They began to share their lives with his.

The word 'blog' wasn't used until 1997. It is short for 'WebLog' (web log), a name invented by Jorn Barger in December of that year. Now the number of active bloggers is estimated to be about 100 million worldwide, and Justin Hall has been named 'the founding father of personal blogging' by the New York Times.

The first social networking site

In the 1990s more and more homes had Internet access. People could connect easily with each other. Would they also like to reconnect with old friends? In 1995 Classmates.com, the first social networking site, began life in the basement of Randy Conrads, a Boeing employee in the US. It was immediately popular. People loved exchanging life stories with old schoolmates and school romances were reignited. In one year this led to 100 marriages.

The idea was copied in many countries, including Friends Reunited in the UK. In 2003 the business networking site LinkedIn began. This has over 60 million members. In the same year and with three times that number is MySpace. However, one name leads all other global social networking sites, Facebook. Created in 2004 by students at Harvard University, it went worldwide in 2006 and has more than 750 million users. There has even been a film, The Social Network, made about it.

It seems people love talking about themselves. On the micro-blogging site, Twitter, users inform their followers about tiny details of their lives: 'I'm having honey with my toast this morning!'

A Tragic Dynasty

The Getty family is one of the richest families in the world, yet it has been plagued by tragedy for generations. The family are proof that money cannot buy happiness.

Jean Paul Getty I (1892–1976)

Jean Paul Getty I was an American businessman. He founded the Getty Oil Company, and in 1957 was named the richest living American. He was one of the world's first billionaires.

A keen collector of art and antiques, he built the J. Paul Getty Museum in Los Angeles, California. He left over $661 million to the museum when he died.

In 1957 he was named the richest living American

He moved to England in the 1950s and bought a 16th-century Tudor estate, Sutton Place, near Guildford. This house became the centre of the Getty Oil Company and he used it to entertain his British and Arabian oil friends. Paul I was famous for his meanness. He installed a pay phone in Sutton Place for his guests' use. He died there on June 6th, 1976, aged 83.

Getty married and divorced five times in his life. He had five sons with four of his wives.

Jean Paul Getty II (1932–2003)

Jean Paul Getty II was the son of Paul I's fourth wife, Ann Rork. His parents divorced when he was three. The young Paul II rarely saw his father, but he wrote to him. His father never answered the letters. He just returned them with the spelling mistakes underlined.

In 1956 he married his childhood sweetheart, Gail Harris and had four children. They moved to Rome where Paul II ran Getty Oil Italiana. They were a popular, party-loving couple, but alcohol and drugs took control of their lives. They divorced in 1964. Two years later Paul II married the Dutch model Talitha Pol (pictured). This also ended in disaster. She died of a drug overdose in 1971.

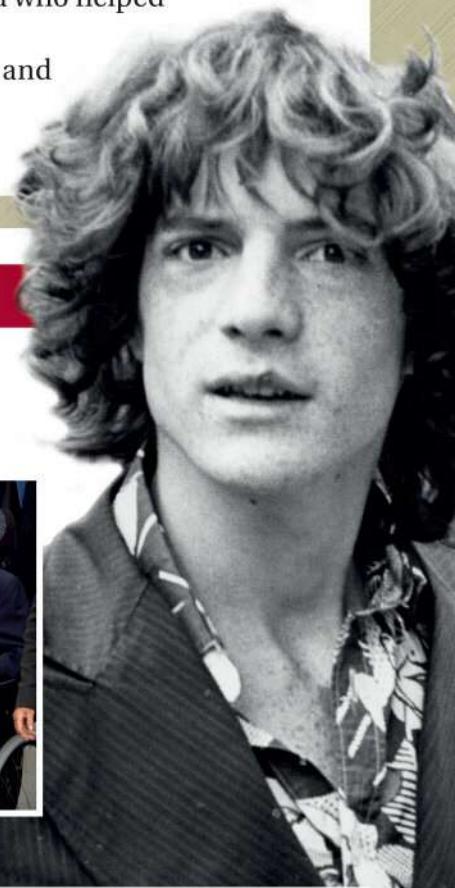

Paul II and Paul I had one thing in common – they were very bad fathers. In 1973 Paul II's eldest son, Jean Paul III, was kidnapped in Rome, and a ransom of $17 million demanded. His grandfather refused to pay, saying 'I have 14 other grandchildren.' An envelope arrived from the kidnappers. Inside was Paul III's ear and a note:

This is Paul's ear. If we don't get some money within ten days, then the other ear will arrive.

Paul I finally paid $3 million and his grandson was released.

Paul II moved back to England and in 1997 became a British citizen. He had inherited $2.5 billion from his father. He donated over $2.25 million of this to the arts. In 1994, he married his third wife, Victoria Holdsworth. It was Victoria who helped him finally beat his drug addiction. He died in 2003 and is buried in Westminster Abbey.

Jean Paul Getty III (1956–2011)

Jean Paul Getty III spent his childhood in Italy. His parents divorced when he was nine and after that he saw very little of his father. By the age of fifteen he had been expelled from seven schools and he was already taking drugs. Then in July, 1973, when he was sixteen, came the kidnapping. He was imprisoned in a cave in the mountains for five months, until his ear was cut off and his grandfather finally paid a ransom. Paul III never recovered. He returned to a lifestyle of parties and drugs. In 1974, aged eighteen, he married Gisela Zacher, a German model, and moved to Los Angeles. He was just nineteen when his son Balthazar was born.

Paul III was now an alcoholic and drug addict and in 1981, at just twenty-four years old, he took a drug overdose and had a stroke. He was in a coma for six weeks and afterwards he was paralysed, nearly blind and unable to speak. His father, Paul II, like his grandfather before, refused to help. Paul III and Gisela divorced in 1993 and he was looked after by his mother, Gail, until his death on February 5th, 2011. He was fifty-four.

Balthazar Getty (1975–)

Balthazar Getty, the great-grandson of Jean Paul Getty I, was born in California in 1975. He is an actor and a musician. When he was eleven he was sent to Gordonstoun School, an elite boarding school in Scotland which has educated three generations of the British royal family.

Balthazar has been working in films since he was twelve years old, when he was given the leading role of the schoolboy, Ralph, in the film Lord of the Flies. He's made many films since then, including Young Guns II and Natural Born Killers. He has also been in TV shows. Recently he has been appearing in the hit ABC series, Brothers and Sisters.

Balthazar has also worked as a fashion model and in 2000, he married fashion designer Rosetta Millington. They have a son, Cassius Paul, and three daughters. The marriage almost ended in 2008 when Balthazar was photographed kissing the actress Sienna Miller. He has since returned to his wife.

So far Balthazar's life has been more successful than his father's and grandfather's. He says: 'As a child, I really didn't know what it was to be a Getty. I had a pretty modest upbringing.'

► WRITING T 12.12 T 12.13 Listening and note-taking p117

The Wonders

There are two things that are impossible for us to understand about the Universe.

Part 1 > The Earth

The Earth is the only place in the Universe where life is known to exist. It has all the conditions that are suitable for supporting life.

- It is at a perfect distance from the sun. If it was closer, there would be too much radiation. The Earth would be too hot, and all the oceans would evaporate. If it was further from the sun, it would be too cold, and the planet would be covered in ice.
- The Earth rotates on its axis, so the whole surface is warmed and cooled once a day every day. If it didn't rotate, one side would be permanently hot, and the other cold.
- It is at an angle ( $23.5^\circ$ ) to the sun, which gives us our seasons. At different times of year, the northern hemisphere gets more or less sunlight than the southern hemisphere. Without seasons, our weather would be too extreme.
- 70% of the Earth is covered in water. If there was no water, there would be no life.
- Our atmosphere blocks harmful solar radiation, but allows enough heat from the sun to warm us.
- The earth is the right size. If it was bigger, gravity would be much stronger, and we wouldn't be able to move. If it was smaller and gravity was weaker, it wouldn't hold our oceans.

of our Universe

> One is its ... sIZE

It is probably infinite.
Which means it goes on for ever ...
and ever ... and ever ... and ever ...

> Another is its ... TIME

If you think a year lasts a long time ...

If you think 20 is old ...

If you think 2,000 years ago is ancient history ... think again. The Universe is 13.7 billion years old.

Part 2 > Our Solar System

The Earth is part of our solar system. At the centre of this is the sun, which is the solar system's star.

Our solar system consists of the sun and objects connected to it by gravity – eight planets and some moons. The four smaller planets, Mercury, Venus, Earth, and Mars, are made of rock and metal. The two largest, Jupiter and Saturn, are called the gas giants. They consist mainly of hydrogen and helium. The two furthest from the Sun, Uranus and Neptune, consist of ice.

> Our Galaxy

Our solar system is part of the galaxy known as the Milky Way. It is about half way out from the centre.

Our sun is just one of the stars in the Milky Way. One of between 100 and 400 billion stars.

Our solar system goes round the centre of the Milky Way once every 250 million earth years.

> The Universe

Our galaxy is just one of more than 170 billion galaxies in the observable Universe. The Universe is probably infinite. There is no end to it.

Part 3 > The End

Our sun is getting hotter. In one billion years' time, the Earth will become too hot for water to exist, and all life will end. Our sun will continue to burn until it uses all its supply of hydrogen. In five billion years' time it will expand, then explode and become a red giant. After that it will collapse and become smaller than the Earth.

Some scientists believe that the Universe will continue to expand. All the stars, every single one, will burn out and it will go dark. The temperature will drop to zero. This will happen when the Universe is 100 trillion years old. After that, there will be nothing. Forever.

> The wonder of it all

There is a short period of time in the early years of the Universe when life is possible. This period, in the history of time, lasts just a second, a flash, a click of the fingers.

That miraculous time is now.

We are in the most precious place at the most precious time.

And it's now!

My dreams for the future

Hello everyone. My name's Susannah – Susie for short. I'm 20 years old. At the moment I'm in my second year at art school and I often dream about my future. I have big plans and I'd like to tell you a bit about them.

My most immediate plans are holiday plans. I'm going to visit my brother who's working in Australia. My mother and I are going to spend Christmas with him in the summer sun. I'm very excited about that.

When I return I need to make a final decision about which course to study next year. I'm still not sure – I'm thinking of doing either fashion design or landscape design. It's difficult because I'm interested in both clothes and gardens. If I choose landscape I'd like to work with my friend, Jasper. He's brilliant with gardens and we've already worked on two together. It was great fun and we get on very well.

In five or ten years' time I would like to have my own business and work for myself like my father. He has his own building business. Perhaps I'll do a business course after I finish art school.

Of course, one day I hope to marry and have children. Ideally before I'm 30, but I can't plan when I'll meet the right person and I haven't got a boyfriend at the moment.

In my dreams I see myself at 40 running a successful gardening company with about 20 employees. I'll design beautiful gardens for beautiful people. I'll have a beautiful house, two beautiful children, and of course a husband who's as successful as I am. Who knows, it could even be Jasper!

- 1 Complete this sentence in any way you can.

PITTSBURGH THE TOWN WHERE I WAS BORN

I was born in Pittsburgh, the second largest city in Pennsylvania, USA, with a population of about 2.4 million. Pittsburgh lies on the banks of three rivers (1) that are crossed by over 400 bridges. The city is named after William Pitt, (2) who was the Prime Minister of Britain in the 1700s. It is sometimes called 'The City of Bridges'.

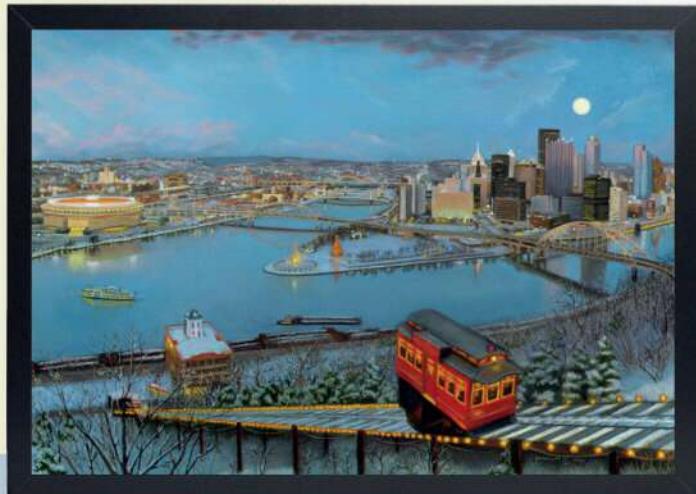

Fifty years ago, Pittsburgh was a thriving, industrial town. It had dozens of factories (3) which produced iron and steel. However, in the 1970s and 80s the steel mills closed and the city suffered badly. Streets, (4) where once people hurried to work, became deserted and dangerous. However, today, a lot of these streets are thriving again with theatres, shops, and restaurants.

Pittsburgh is surrounded by hills from (5) where you can enjoy great views of the city, views (6) which have inspired many artists, such as Linda Barnicott, who painted My Home Town. The museums display the work of many local artists, including Andy Warhol, (7) who was born and raised in Pittsburgh.

The city is now named one of the 'World's Most Liveable Cities'. I moved away ten years ago, but I often return. I miss the tough, friendly people, (8) who have lived through good times and bad. They make me proud to call Pittsburgh my hometown.

- 1 Write down the names of any famous families you know. Share your ideas with the class. Why are they famous?
- 2 What do you know about John F. Kennedy? Discuss with a partner.
- 3 Read the seven paragraphs about John F. Kennedy. Work together to put the paragraphs in the correct order. Which words helped you decide the order?

THE LIFE OF A KENNEDY

1 John F. Kennedy 1917–1963

a This was a huge tragedy for Joseph Sr. who had wanted his first son to become president. He now turned his attention to his second son, John. John wanted to please his father, and in 1952 he was elected to the US Senate.

b US President John Fitzgerald Kennedy ('JFK') was born on May 29, 1917. He was the second of nine children in a wealthy and powerful American family. His father, Joseph, was the US ambassador to Britain, and his grandfather was the mayor of Boston. Despite all the money and fame, John's life was not easy.

c The following year, John joined the Navy and fought in World War II. He almost died when his boat sank in 1943. Then, in 1944, his older brother, Joseph Jr., was tragically killed in a military plane crash.

d As a child he was often sick and had to miss months of school. However, he was a clever and popular student. His high school classmates voted him 'Most likely to become President'! He graduated from Harvard University in 1940.

e However, even as President, tragedy continued to follow JFK. In August, 1963, his son, Patrick, died two days after birth. And on November 22, 1963, John F. Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas, Texas. The nation was shocked, and even today millions of Americans remember what they were doing on that day.

f Around the time of John Jr.'s birth, JFK became President. He was a popular, young leader during an important time in American history. Events during his presidency included the Cuban Missile Crisis, the building of the Berlin Wall, and the beginning of the Space Race.

g A year later, in 1953 he married Jacqueline Bouvier. In another tragedy, their first child died at birth in 1956. However, the couple had a daughter, Caroline, in 1957. In 1960, they had a son, John Jr.

Hi Steve,

Just to let you know that I'm thinking of coming to England this summer. You know I have to use English a lot in my new job, so I want (need!) some extra lessons, especially for my pronunciation – as you are always telling me I should try to improve this! Can't wait to hear from you. See you soon I hope.

- 4 Read the review of the novel, Frankenstein. Check your answers to exercise 3.
- 5 Read the review again. What do the words in bold refer to?
- 6 Look at these headings. Find the information in the review of Frankenstein.

- title and author
- type of book/film
- characters
- the plot

Make some notes under the same headings about a book or film that you have read or seen recently. Then write a short review. Read it aloud to the class and answer questions.

The story of Frankenstein is famous all over the world. Written in 1818 by Mary Shelley, the wife of the English poet P B Shelley, it was immediately very popular. It's a horror story, and many people say it is the original science-fiction novel. However, they often think that Frankenstein is the name of the monster in the story, but in fact it is the name of the scientist who created it.

From the letters of an English explorer, Captain Robert Walton, we learn about Victor Frankenstein, a scientist from Geneva who has discovered the secret of life and decided to make a human being. So, at night he visits graveyards and collects bones and bodies. With these he creates a person who is more monster than man.

The monster is huge and ugly, but also intelligent. Of course when people see it they are terrified and as a result the poor monster has no friends and feels lonely and depressed. Finally, it asks Frankenstein to make it a wife. This he refuses to do. So the monster attacks and kills not only Frankenstein's bride, Elizabeth, but also his brother, and a friend. The scientist is heartbroken and now wants to kill the monster. He chases it across the world. However, he dies when they meet in the Arctic and the monster then kills itself.

There are over 40 movies which tell the story of Frankenstein, the first as long ago as 1910. It is a fascinating tale because of the complex character of the monster, which is both sad and frightening at the same time.

The Pros and Cons of Social Networking Sites

Social networking sites, such as Facebook, have many advantages. They are an excellent way of keeping in touch with people in your life, friends and family. They are a great way of finding old friends. You can communicate with these people at any time you want and in many ways, you can share your photos, your favourite music and videos with them. You can join groups with similar interests to yourself, sports, hobbies, and your work.

Social networking sites have many disadvantages. You are often flooded with requests from unknown or unwanted 'friends'. Friends and family may find out too much about your private life and you may hear about boring events in their lives. You can be tagged in pictures that you don't want others to see. The biggest problem is that you can waste too much time on Facebook. Some people can become addicted to it.

Social networking sites are definitely here to stay. They are now one of the main means of communication worldwide. We can't imagine our lives without them.

T 1.2 Anton Kristoff from Toronto, Canada

Hi! I'm Anton. I come from Canada, but at the moment I'm living here in New York. I'm working as a bike messenger. I really like New York, it's the center of the universe and it's very cosmopolitan. I have friends from all over the world. I earn about $100 a day in this job. That's good money. I'm saving money for my education.

I was born in Toronto, but my parents are from Bulgaria. They moved to Canada thirty years ago. When they first arrived they didn't speak any English. They worry about me. Last month I had a bad accident on my bike, but I'm fine now. Next September I'm going back home to Toronto, and I'm going to study for a Master's degree and then I hope to get a good job.

T 1.3 Rowenna Lee from Melbourne, Australia

Hi, I'm Rowenna. I'm Australian, I come from Melbourne, but now I live in north London with my husband David. He's English. David and I run an art gallery. It's a gallery for Australian Aboriginal art. I just love Aboriginal art, I love all the colours and shapes. I'm preparing a new exhibition at the moment.

I came to England in 2006 as a student. My parents wanted me to study law, but I didn't like it, -er, I hated it in fact. I left the course after three months and got a job in an art gallery, that's where I met David. Then, we had the idea of opening our own gallery just for Aboriginal art, because most English people don't know anything about it. That was in 2006, and we borrowed £25,000 from the bank to do it. We're lucky because the gallery's really successful and we paid the money back after just five years. I go back to Australia every year. I usually go in the English winter because it's summer in Australia. But I'm not going next year because, you see, I'm going to have a baby in December. It's my first so I'm very excited.

T 1.4 Questions about Rowenna

- 1 A Where does she live?

A Who with?
B With her husband, David.
2 A What does she do?
B She runs an art gallery.
3 A What is she doing at the moment?
B She's preparing a new art exhibition

- 4 A When and why did she come to England?

T 1.10 My oldest friend

- 1 Kenny talking to Judy
J Kenny, I see you have more than 300 friends on Facebook!
K Amazing, isn't it? I don't know how it happened. I think it's because my job takes me all over the world and I make friends wherever I go.
J I travel too, but I don't have that many friends.
K Come on Judy. I'm your friend, that's one friend at least!
J But what about close friends? How many of the 300 are close?
K I have no idea.
J No idea? More than ten? More than twenty?
K Er, probably no more than ten really close friends.
J So, who's your oldest friend?
K That's easy. Pete's my oldest friend – since we were both 16, and he came to my school. He lives in Canada now. But he was best man at my wedding and I was best man at his.
J How often do you see him?
K Not often. Maybe once or twice a year. I went over to Canada last year when his son was born. Do you know, he named him Ken after me?
J Hey, that's lovely! You and Pete are really good friends, aren't you?
K Yeah!
J Why do you think that is?
K It's our love of football!
J Don't tell me, he supports Liverpool too!
K Of course. Best team in the world. No, seriously the best thing about Pete is that maybe we don't see each other for months, even years, but when we get together immediately we're talking ...
J ... about football.
K No, about all kinds of things. Our families mainly. He's a great guy.

2 Damian talking to Toby

- T Am I your best friend?
D No, silly, you're my brother!
T I'm not silly. Can't I be your best friend?
D No, you can't. No one's best friends with his brother!
T But I don't have many friends.
D That's your problem. Look, I'm going to meet Thomas and the gang now.
T Is Thomas your best friend?
D No.
T Is he your oldest friend?
D No. Zac's my oldest friend. You know that – since we sat next to each other in Class 1. Zac and me are going to travel the world together when we finish school.
T Can I come?
D NO, YOU CAN'T! Just shut ...
T Well, can Thomas be my friend?
D Toby, be quiet about friends! You are so boring, I'm not surprised you have no friends.
T But can I ...?
D No, no, no! I'm off. See you!
T But ...

3 Katie talking to Beth

- B Katie, you're lucky, you have so many friends!
K Mmm, I suppose so. I do have quite a lot.
B Why do think that is?
K Well, I'm not sure, I think I kind of collect friends. I have friends from all different times in my life. You know school, university, and now at work, and I keep my friends.
B So, who's your oldest friend?
K You are, of course! You and me, Beth, we're the same age, 24, and you could say we met before we were born.
B I suppose you're right ...
K Yeah, our mums met when they were ...
B I know they met at the hospital when they went for check-ups before we were born.
K Yeah, and we were born on the same day.
B I know, but I'm ten hours older than you!
K That's why you're wiser than me! You're my oldest and my best friend. You're like a sister to me.

T 1.11 A survey – How do couples meet?

A survey of over 10,000 couples asked them how they first met. The top three were: first, with 22%, 'at work'; second, with 20%, 'through friends', and third, with 15%, 'at school or university'. Next, with 12%, was 'meeting online'. Nowadays more and more couples are meeting this way. Just 8% met at a bar or club and 5% through the family, which was quite surprising. Only 4% met on a blind date – perhaps not so surprising. Last of all, just 1% met while shopping – so don't go looking for love in the supermarket. That leaves just 13% who didn't meet in any of these places.

T 1.12 What happened next?

Dominic

I sent Sally a text a couple of days after the date. She played it cool and didn't reply for two days. We met up a week later, went for a walk, and then to the cinema. We're still seeing each other. She's helping me train for the marathon which is next month. She's going to come and watch me. Also, she came to the theatre to watch my play and she said she liked it. I'm going to meet her parents next weekend. I'm a bit worried about that, but I enjoy being with her a lot.

Sally

When Dom texted, I knew I wanted to answer, but I made him wait. I'm not sure why, silly really because I really do like him. I enjoyed seeing him act. I think he's a very good actor, but I didn't really understand the play. He's coming to meet my family next weekend. I don't usually take my boyfriends home so soon, but with Dom it's different. I have a good feeling about this relationship. Will it last? Ask me again a year from now!

UNIT 2

T 2.1 Mamy Rock, The Granny DJ

Ruth Flowers is not an ordinary grandmother. She's in her 70s, and has silver hair and bright-red lipstick. She's a DJ and works in clubs in Europe and tours festivals. She lives alone in Bristol. She says, 'I've got a son and a grandson. They think what I'm doing is very cool!' She likes rock bands such as Queen and the Rolling Stones, but she also plays electro and dance music. 'I love being with young people,' she says. 'They've got so much energy and enthusiasm!' She's planning another European tour, and is currently making a new single. 'I'm having a lot of fun,' she says. 'I don't want it to stop.'

T 2.2 The SuperJam millionaire

Fraser Doherty is an extraordinary young man. He has his own company, SuperJam, which he started when he was just 16. 'I earn more money than my parents,' he says. His company makes jam – 500,000 jars every year – using a secret recipe from his grandmother. All the major supermarkets sell his products. The business is growing fast – four flavours at the moment, but more on the way. And he has a charity that organizes huge tea parties for old people with live music and dancing. 'At the moment I'm very busy. I'm writing a cookbook. I've got an idea for a TV programme. And we're trying to get into the American market.'

T 2.10 Two neighbours

Mrs Crumble

I have the flat above that young man. I think his name is Alfie Smith, because I see the postman delivering his letters. He never says hello. He hasn't got a job, well he doesn't go out to work at 8.00 in the morning, and that's for sure! He doesn't get up till the afternoon, and he wears jeans and a T-shirt all the time. He never looks smart. He certainly never wears a suit. Goodness knows where he gets his money from! It's funny! I never hear him in the evening. I've no idea what he does in the evening.

There are people coming and going in and out of his flat all day long. I have no idea how many people are staying. Four? Five? Have none of them got jobs?

He's got a girlfriend. She's very ... pretty. Blond hair, dyed. She's living with him. I know a lot of young people live together these days, but I don't like it, living together and not married. It's not right.

He always makes such a noise! Listen! There he is now! Music! He's listening to music! Why can't he turn it down? It's so loud!

Young people these days have no manners, they live in their own world, and they just don't care about other people. They don't even notice old people like me. He probably doesn't know who I am.

Alfie

I've got this new flat. It's so nice! I really love it. I'm having such a good time. The only thing is it's below an old lady, and that's a bit difficult. Her name's Mrs Crumble. I always say hello when I see her, 'How are you, Mrs Crumble?' 'Nice day, Mrs Crumble!' and all that, but she never replies. She just looks at me. I think she's deaf.

She probably thinks I'm unemployed because I don't go out to work in the morning and I don't wear a suit. I think I wear really cool clothes. Well, I'm a musician. I play the saxophone, and at the moment I'm playing in a jazz club. I don't start till 8.00 at night, and I don't finish till 2.00 in the morning, so I sleep from 3.00 till 11.00.

There's only me living here, but my flat's a bit busy at the moment because some of the other guys in the band are using it to keep their instruments in, so they're always coming in and out.

I've got a lovely girlfriend, she's the singer in the band. She's so beautiful! She lives the other side of town, but obviously I see her every day because we work together. She comes to my place sometimes. I know I make a bit of noise, because I practise my saxophone. See what I mean? What can I do? I have to practise somewhere!

I know that old Mrs Crumble is always watching me. It's sad because she has nothing to do. I feel sorry for her, and I'm always really kind to her like I am to my own grandmother, but she's so suspicious of young people. She thinks we're all no good and take drugs. It's just not true! I work really hard!

I was lying in my hammock last night trying to sleep, but it was impossible because the noise of the jungle was so loud. Monkeys were screaming in the trees, and millions of mosquitos were buzzing round my head. I took a sleeping pill and finally fell asleep at 3.00 a.m.

UNIT 4

T 4.1 Questions about the diet

- 1 Q Today we're talking to a couple who are following The Calorie Restriction Diet. So my first question is... Do you eat any meat?
A No, we don't eat any meat at all, but we eat some fish.
- 2 Q How much fish do you eat?
A We eat a little white fish, but we love shellfish so we eat a lot of prawns.
- 3 Q Do you eat much fruit?
A Oh yes, we eat a lot of fresh fruit – apples and grapes – everything.
- 4 Q And do you eat many vegetables?
A Yes, of course, we eat lots of raw vegetables.
- 5 Q Don't you cook any vegetables at all?
A We cook some. Sometimes we steam a few carrots and a little broccoli.
- 6 Q And what do you drink?
A Well, we don't drink any tea or coffee, and naturally there's no alcohol in our diet, but we do drink a lot of orange juice.
- 7 Q How many calories do you have every day?
A About 1,500.
A That's about 1,000 fewer than most people.

T 4.2 Following the diet

- Q Tell us some more about the diet.
- A Well, I think we have a good diet. We enjoy the food we do eat. For breakfast we have cereal, homemade cereal, we make it ourselves. We have it with fruit. We eat all fruit.
  - A But we don't eat any dairy products – no milk, no cheese and we don't eat bread so we don't need butter ...
  - A We use olive oil instead. We often have it on salad for lunch with tomatoes and lots of nuts and sometimes green peppers stuffed with rice.
  - Q So you eat rice. What about pasta and potatoes?
A No, not at all. We don't eat anything made from potatoes.

Q No crisps or chips then. And I'm guessing you eat nothing made with sugar.

A You're right. We make fresh juice to drink, but with no sugar.

Q And nothing alcoholic of course. What about water?

A Well, we don't drink any tap water.

Q Really? Why not?

A It's not good for you. We drink a little mineral water sometimes.

Q You're amazing. Well, I hope you live to be 120, but I'm sure I won't be around to see it.

T 4.3 something/someone/somewhere ...

- 1 A Did you meet anyone nice at the party?
B Yes. I met somebody who knows you!
A Oh, who was that?
B Your ex-boyfriend.
- 2 A Ouch! There's something in my eye!
B Let me look. No, I can't see anything.
A But I can feel it. Somewhere in the corner of my eye.
- 3 A Let's go somewhere hot for our holidays.
B But we can't go anywhere that's too expensive.
A I know, but we can afford this package holiday to Turkey.
- 4 A Where are my glasses? I can't find them anywhere.
B What are they on the top of your head?
A My glasses! Thank you.
- 5 A It was a great party. Everybody loved it.
B They did. Nobody wanted to go home.
A I know. A few people were still dancing at 3.00 a.m.
- 6 A Did you get anything nice in the sales?
B No, nothing. I couldn't find anything I liked.
A Why not try shopping online? You can buy everything online these days.

T 4.5 My grandfather's shop

My grandfather lived until he was 101 years old. He was a shopkeeper. He had a fish and chip shop in an old village near a big, industrial town in the north of England. He had a son and a daughter. The daughter is my mother. The family lived above the shop.

In those days, fish and chips was the most popular dish in the whole country. My grandfather made the best fish and chips in the area. People came to the village by bus especially to get them.

Everybody loved my grandfather because he was such a happy and contented man. He worked hard, but once a week he closed the shop and went to have lunch (not fish and chips!) with friends in the local pub. He didn't retire until he was 78 years old. He said that the secret to a long life was a glass of whisky before going to bed and lots of fish and chips.

T 4.7 Unusual restaurants

1 Alexander

We were on honeymoon and we saw some brochures about this restaurant. It was my wife's birthday so I thought why not – it's expensive, but you don't find many restaurants like this. It was difficult to get a reservation because it only takes twelve people. When we arrived we had drinks on the deck above and someone gave us a talk about how they built the restaurant and then we took off our shoes and descended, – down, down the spiral stairs and into the restaurant. Actually, the restaurant itself isn't very exciting, the decor I mean, but it doesn't need to be because what is totally amazing is the view – it takes your breath away. All around and above your head are hundreds, maybe thousands, of fish, all colours in a blue, blue sea. I was sitting opposite my wife when a turtle appeared just behind her head. In fact we were so busy looking at it all we almost forgot that we were there to eat. The food was delicious, fish of course, but to be honest we felt a bit bad eating white fish, surrounded by white fish. There was just one problem, a guest at the next table. He spoke really loudly and complained about everything. We couldn't find anything to complain about. It was the perfect honeymoon restaurant.

2 Hans

I booked online of course. It's the only way you can book. And I went with my sons – they are five and eight years old – and I thought they would like it a lot. They were very excited. They had the idea that the waiters were robots, so when we arrived and there was nobody there at all they were a bit disappointed. But the whole place was amazing. It was like walking inside a computer, so the boys soon became excited again. We picked up a card and sat down at one of the big round, red tables. The boys loved the touch-screen TVs. They got the idea immediately and started choosing food from the pictures. While we were waiting they were texting their mother to tell her how fantastic it all was. In just a few minutes pots with our meals inside came flying down the spiral tubing in the middle of the table. The boys couldn't believe it, they were shouting with excitement. We all had steak and salad and then the boys had baked bananas with ice cream and chocolate. It was delicious. There was an older lady sitting next to us. She was a bit confused so we helped her. She said, 'I think this is more for young people than people my age.' Maybe she's right.

3 Lucy

I was hungry when I arrived at the restaurant, but when I saw the crane I forgot about being hungry. I was so frightened. The host, David, said 'Don't worry, it's 100% safe'. Huh! I'm sure a few of the other guests felt like me – they looked very pale. Anyway, we sat down at this huge table, fastened our seat belts and up, up, up we went.

I couldn't look down. Everyone was saying, 'What a wonderful view', but I just couldn't look. Then one of the waiters put a glass of wine in my hand and I opened my eyes and the view was amazing. People were waving to us from the ground. They probably thought we were mad. The weather was perfect, thank goodness, just a little breeze. I began to enjoy it. The other guests were all great fun. I didn't know anyone at the start, but I soon made some friends and the food was good too, especially the prawns. The chef cooked them in front of us on a tiny cooker. But best of all, was at the end, when everybody learnt my name they started singing 'Lucy in the sky with diamonds'. No diamonds, but I was certainly in the sky. I was quite sorry when we came down to earth again.

T 5.5 Writing for talking

My dreams for the future

Hello everyone. My name's Susannah – Susie for short. I'm 20 years old. At the moment I'm in my second year at art school and I often dream about my future. I have big plans and I'd like to tell you a bit about them.

My most immediate plans are holiday plans. I'm going to visit my brother who's working in Australia. My mother and I are going to spend Christmas with him in the summer sun. I'm very excited about that.

When I return I need to make a final decision about which course to study next year. I'm still not sure – I'm thinking of doing either fashion design or landscape design. It's difficult because I'm interested in both clothes and gardens. If I choose landscape I'd like to work with my friend Jasper. He's brilliant with gardens and we've already worked on two together. It was great fun and we get on very well.

In five or ten years' time I would like to have my own business and work for myself like my father. He has his own building business. Perhaps I'll do a business course after I finish art school. Of course, one day I hope to marry and have children. Ideally before I'm 30, but I can't plan when I'll meet the right person and I haven't got a boyfriend at the moment.

In my dreams I see myself at 40 running a successful gardening company with about 20 employees. I'll design beautiful gardens for beautiful people. I'll have a beautiful house, two beautiful children, and of course a husband who's as successful as I am. Who knows, it could even be Jasper!

B Great! I'll look forward to that! Hey, where are you going on holiday this year?
P I'm going surfing for two weeks in Costa Rica.

T 5.11 The 20-somethings!

Leo, aged 28

I had a real shock the other day. My little nephew, he's six, said to me 'Uncle Leo, when you were a little boy did they have telephones?' I couldn't believe it. I said: 'Of course we had telephones. How old do you think I am?' Then he said: 'But did you have mobile phones?' And I thought, 'did we?' I can't remember life without mobile phones, but in fact ...-er I think I was about eight when my dad got one. 'Yeah,' I said, 'When I was eight.' 'Aha!' said my nephew 'I knew it. You are old.' I didn't like hearing that! I'm 28 and I don't feel grown up at all. I have a great life – a good job, lots of friends, I go out with them most nights. I go to the gym every morning. I'm going to buy a flat by the river next year. Maybe when I'm in my 30s I'll get married and start a family.

Elsa, aged 26

I finished university and I started training to be a lawyer. I was earning good money and in many ways I had a good life but -er the more I studied law the more I hated it, I was bored and miserable – so I decided to give it all up and go travelling. I was away for a year. I went to Australia, New Zealand, North and South America – it was fantastic, but then I arrived back home. I was now 24 and with no money, no job, and nowhere to live. I moved back with mum and dad – they're wonderful, they don't make me pay rent, but – oh dear – it's like being a little girl again. At the moment I'm working as a waitress just to make a bit of money and my dad keeps asking 'When are you going to find a real job?', and mum says: 'When I was your age I was married with two children. Married with kids! I don't feel old enough for that! I've got a boyfriend but we're not thinking of getting married. Maybe I'll train to be a teacher, now that's a real job.'

Dan, aged 24

When I left home at 18 I thought that was it – 'Goodbye mum and dad'. Now six years later I'm back! My college days were great – I worked hard and played hard but I left with huge debts – over £15,000. I thought, 'No problem, I'll just get a job and pay it back' I moved into a flat with some friends and I was lucky – I got a job pretty quickly, but ... I want to be a journalist and the only way is to begin at the bottom. I'm a very junior reporter for a small local newspaper. I love working there, but I only earn £16,000 a year. I couldn't afford the rent for the flat, so here I am, back with mum and dad. They call us the 'boomerang kids' – you know, kids who grow up, leave home, and then move back again. Lots of my friends are doing the same, my girlfriend is back with her mum too. One day we're hoping to marry and get a place of our own, but that probably won't be for a few years. You can't grow up when you're still at home with your parents. I'm fed up.

T 5.12 An interview with Palina Yanachkina

I = Interviewer, P = Palina

- I Today I'm talking to Palina Yanachkina. Palina, it's nice to meet you. Can I ask you some questions?

- P Well, I have my family back home in the Ukraine and my family here in Ireland.

- P My parents are farmers and after the accident they couldn't sell any of their produce. No one wanted to buy our meat or vegetables. We were very poor and ill – like many people in the village.
- I How awful, how miserable for you all.
- P But I was lucky. I had the chance to go to Ireland for a holiday and that was when I met my second family. I loved staying with them, -er they were so kind to me. They looked after me so well.

- I Your English is excellent now. Did you speak English then?

- P Not a word. But I soon learnt, especially from the children. I got on really well with them.
- I So you picked up English bit by bit?
- P I had some lessons too and I came back to Ireland many times.
- I What are you doing now?
- P I'm studying here in Ireland. My wonderful Irish family are paying for my studies. I'm hoping to become a doctor one day and return to my village to help the people there. That's my big hope for the future.

T 7.10 David Taylor Bews

I come from Newcastle in England, but now I live in Perth, Australia. I've been here nearly ten years. My wife, Jodie, is Australian and our children, Russell and Alice were born here. Alice is named after my grandmother, her great-grandmother, Alice Bews. She's 89 now and still lives in Newcastle. Lately I've become really interested in my family history back in the UK. I've started speaking to my grandmother about it. I've found out that she was the youngest of nine children and the only one to have been born in England. Her eight brothers and sisters were all born in Scotland. They came from the very north of Scotland, from some islands called the Orkneys. They worked there as farmers over a hundred years ago. My grandmother told me that hundreds of years before that our family's ancestors were actually Norwegian – they came over to Scotland in the 9th century. She says that's why we all have blonde hair in our family. Anyway, it became more and more difficult for my great-grandparents to make a living farming, so they travelled south. They finally arrived in the north of England, in Newcastle with their eight children. Alice was born soon after they arrived.

- I Tilly, I'm sure you have to be very fit and strong to go climbing. How often do you have to train?
TP I don't have to train every day, just two or three times a week, that's enough. I go to the gym. At the weekend I try to get out of the city onto rock, but sometimes I have to work at the hospital.
I What do you do at the hospital?
TP I'm a cardiac technologist. I help doctors treat people with heart diseases.
I Oh, wow! That's interesting. The photograph of Moon Hill Crag is amazing. Was it a difficult climb?

TP It was just after dawn. I had to climb very early in the morning. You can't climb later in the day – it's too hot, over 35°C.
I Who took the photograph?
TP A brilliant sports photographer called Adam Pretty.
I He's a brave man.
TP Oh, he didn't have to climb with me. He took the photo from a nearby tourist spot.

Good preparation is the answer. You must prepare well and practise a lot. The first thirty seconds are the most important. You should begin with a personal story. It will relax you and the audience. You should write your speech down, but I don't think you should read it aloud to the group. Just make notes to help you remember it. ### T 7.11 Talking to Grandma

D = David, AB = Alice Bews

- D So Grandma, your parents were both born in the Orkney Islands, is that right?
AB Yes, my mother was called Jane. She grew up there and she married when she was just 17.

AB She worked as a cleaner and a dressmaker.
D She had two jobs and a big family, that's ...

4 A I'd love to buy that car!

a problem. I think you should show him this letter, and visit the website olganon.org. Tell him firmly that he must change his ways or he'll lose his wife and family. Talk to all your friends and family about the problem – you shouldn't suffer alone.

Dear Billy,
These feelings are very common between brothers and sisters. I'm sure your parents love you and your brother just the same, so you shouldn't worry about this. When you're older, you'll get your own phone, and your own clothes! You must talk to your parents about how you feel. And you shouldn't feel jealous of your brother. He's older than you, that's all!

Dear Tracy,
The fact is, that to get to the top in sport you have to train very hard indeed. You should talk to someone else about your doubts. I don't think you should listen to just your friends. You should explain how you feel to your coach and your mother. However, in the end, the decision is yours and yours alone. You must decide your own future.

T 8.5 Giving advice

- 1 A I can't sleep at night.
B You must do more exercise during the day. Why don't you walk to work? And you shouldn't drink so much coffee just before bedtime.
- 2 A I don't like my brother's new girlfriend.
B I don't think you should tell your brother. I think you should try to find some good things about her.
- 3 A I've got an important exam tomorrow, and I'm really nervous.
B I don't think you should study any more today. You must get a good night's sleep tonight. Don't worry. I'm sure you'll pass and if you don't it's not the end of the world.
- 4 A A boy in my class is bullying me.
B You must tell your teacher or ask your mum to talk to the teacher.
- 5 A I'm hopeless at all sports.
B You shouldn't worry about that. Lots of people aren't very sporty. Think about all the things you are good at.
- 6 A I fell over and I think I've twisted my ankle.
B Ooh it looks bad! You must go to the doctor or better still A and E and ask for an X-ray. I'll drive you. I don't think you should walk on it.
- 7 A My computer's behaving very strangely.
B Mine does that all the time. You should do what I do, turn it off, wait a while, then turn it on again. It's the only thing that ever works for me.
- 8 A My car's making a funny noise.
B It sounds bad, you shouldn't drive it. You must ring the garage.

T 8.6 Jessica Ennis – Britain's first world heptathlon champion!

I = Interviewer, J = Jessica Ennis

- I Nice to meet you, Jessica. Congratulations on your gold medal at the World Athletic Championships in Berlin.
- J Thank you very much.
- I You won in Berlin, but I know that just a couple of years ago you injured your ankle very badly. Were you worried that your sporting career was over?

J Yes, I was very worried. I missed the Olympics in China and I had to work hard with physios and doctors for nine months – but now I'm fine.

- 1 You're obviously a very determined girl.
- J Yeah, my mum always said that from a young age I was very determined. I knew what I wanted.
- I Is your mum a big influence in your life?
- J Yes, she is. She works for a charity. She helps people with drug problems. You have to have a lot of patience for that. My mum's got that. My dad's a painter and decorator. He was born in Jamaica, er he moved here when he was 13.
- I Can see your parents are important to you. I'm sure you have a good coach too.
- J Yes, Tony Minichiello. He's a really good coach, but we often fight, I ...
- I You fight?
- J Well, we do spend a lot of time together. He's always saying 'Come on, come on, you must be more aggressive,' and I'm not really like that. He says that I must only think about athletics, he didn't even want me to get a dog.
- I Did you get a dog?
- J Oh, yeah. I have a beautiful chocolate labrador, called Myla.
- I So, do you think that you should have other interests, not just athletics?
- J Yeah, but when I'm competing I go into my own little world. I don't see my boyfriend, I ...
- I You have a boyfriend?
- J Yep, Andy. I only spoke to him once on the phone when I was in Berlin. I had to concentrate on competing. I know I won in Berlin, but I can still improve. I have to work on my long jump and javelin, and I know I can run more quickly. It's the small things that make a difference in the end.
- I I hope you have time to feel proud of being world champion.
- J Oh, yes. I keep my medal by my bed and when I look at it I think 'Oh my goodness, I won. I'm world champion'. Sometimes I can't believe it.
- I It's a fantastic achievement. Well done and good luck in the next Olympics.
- J Thank you.

T 8.7 Brothers and sisters

1 David

I'm one of three brothers. I'm the middle one. There was just Mark, my elder brother, and me for years. I liked that, I liked being the baby, but then Rob was born when I was seven and I was so jealous. I thought he was our mum's favourite. We had lots of fights as kids, but now it's great. I'd like to have at least three kids – three boys like us would be great.

2 A girl called Peta

My mum and dad called me Peta when I was born because they wanted a boy! Then they had four boys after me. I don't like being the eldest of so many boys and I don't like my name. I'm going to change it to Petra when I'm 18. I quite like the baby, Henry – he's everybody's favourite – but I hate the others. They're annoying and very boring – all they do is play noisy computer games and talk about football. I don't want any children when I grow up – well, maybe one daughter.

3 Stewart (27)

I'm an only child. My mum and dad divorced when I was just three years old so I grew up with just my mum. I love my mum, but I didn't like the situation, I was her whole world. This was difficult for me. Then, when I was thirteen she married again and that was difficult too. It took me a long time to get on with my step-dad. He's really nice, but I was jealous of him for years. I've just got married. My wife's an only child too and we both definitely want to have lots of children.

T 8.8 Symptoms and diagnoses

B You've got diarrhoea.
A My glands are swollen, and it hurts when I swallow.
B You've got a sore throat.
A I keep being sick, and I've got terrible diarrhoea.

T 8.9 At the doctor's

D = female doctor, E = Edsom

- D What seems to be the problem?
E Well, I haven't felt well for a few days. I've had a bad headache and now I've got a sore throat.
D Any sickness or diarrhoea?
E Well, I haven't been sick.
D Do you feel hot?
E Yes, especially at night. I feel hot and I start coughing when I lie down.
D OK, I'll just take your temperature. Ah, yes. You do have a bit of a fever. Now, let me see your throat. Open your mouth wide, please.
E Can you see anything?
D Yes, your throat looks very red. Does this hurt?
E Ow!
D And your glands are swollen. You just have a bit of an infection. You need antibiotics. Are you allergic to penicillin?
E No, I'm not.
D Good. Now, you should take things easy for a couple of days and you must drink plenty of liquids. I'll write you a prescription.
E Thank you. Do I have to pay you?
D No, no. But you'll have to pay for the prescription. It's £7.20.
E Right. Thanks very much. Goodbye.

T 9.2 The bear and the travellers

Two travellers were walking slowly along a country road. They were going to the city because they were looking for work. They were tired because they had walked twenty miles and they were hungry because they hadn't eaten all day. Suddenly, in the woods in front of them, they saw a huge bear. The men were terrified. One of them ran away, climbed a tree, and hid. The other man fell to the ground and pretended to be dead. He had heard that bears don't like eating dead meat. The bear came towards him. It bent down, sniffed him, and whispered something in his ear. Then it wandered away. After the bear had gone, the other man came down from his tree and went to see how his friend was. He wanted to know what the bear had said to him. 'The bear gave me some advice,' said his companion. 'He said: Next time you go on a journey, travel with someone who won't leave you at the first sign of danger.' The moral of this story is ... choose your friends carefully!

T 9.6 The boy who cried wolf

Once upon a time there was a shepherd boy who looked after the sheep in the hills near his village. He thought this job was very boring. One day, while he was sitting under a tree, he had an idea. He decided to have some fun, so he went down to the village and shouted 'Wolf! Wolf!' at the top of his voice.

As soon as the villagers heard the boy, they stopped work and raced to the hills to help him. But when they got there, they saw nothing. They returned to their work. After they'd gone, the shepherd boy smiled to himself.

A few days later, the boy did the same thing again. He ran into the village and shouted 'Wolf! Wolf!' The villagers didn't know whether to believe him or not, but they were worried about their sheep so they had to help him. They went back to the hills. Again there was no wolf. They were angry because the shepherd boy had lied again, but he just laughed.

Then, the next day, just as the sun was setting, a wolf really did appear, and it began attacking the sheep. In terror, the boy raced down the hill to the village, shouting 'Wolf! Wolf!' Although the villagers heard his cries, they did nothing to help. This time they really didn't believe him. The shepherd boy climbed back up the hill to look for the sheep, but the wolf had killed them all. He was so ashamed of himself that he sat down in the moonlight and cried.

The moral of this story is ... you should not lie. A liar will not be believed, even when he tells the truth.

T 9.8 My favourite writer

I = Interviewer, T = Tom

Part 1

- I Tom, you chose Charles Dickens as your favourite writer. Can you tell us a little about him? When was he alive?
- T He wrote in the nineteenth century. He was born in England in 1812 and died in 1870.
- I What did he write? What sort of books?
- T He wrote novels and short stories.
- I And tell us ... why is he famous?
- T At the time he was writing there was a lot of inequality between the rich and the poor. Dickens wanted to change society. He wrote about people who were poor, and hungry, or ill, or who were unfortunate in some way. Dickens created some of the most famous characters in English literature.
- I What are his best-known books?
- T There are quite a few, but possibly David Copperfield, which has a lot of autobiography in it, and Oliver Twist, and after that A Christmas Carol. In this book we meet a character called Scrooge ...
- I Ah! The man who hated Christmas!
- T That's right. At the beginning of the story Scrooge is a miserable character who refuses to spend any money to help his poor family. But by the end he is a changed man – kind, generous, and full of love for people around him.
- I What was Dickens' personal life like?
- T Mmm. A mix of good and bad. His parents were poor. Dickens became very rich. He married and had ten children ...
- I Ten!
- T Yes. But he left his wife because he fell in love with an actress. He didn't get divorced – in those days it was impossible, absolutely out of the question. So there was a lot of sadness in his life.

I Oh, dear! Poor Mr Dickens!

T 9.9 My favourite writer

I = Interviewer, A = Alice

Part 2

I Now, Alice. You chose Robert Louis Stevenson. Tell us about him. When was he writing?

A Well, he was born in 1850, and he died in 1894, so he was writing just after Dickens, in the second half of the nineteenth century.

I And ... what did he write?

A He wrote novels, and poetry, and he was also a travel writer.

I Oh! Quite a lot! Tell us ... why is he famous?

A Well, he isn't as famous as Dickens. But he's very popular because he's a great story teller. His stories are about adventure, danger, and horror. His heroes are pure, and his villains are dark.

I What are his best-known books?

A There's a children's book called Treasure Island, and there's a travel story about going around France, but the most famous is The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde.

I And they, I suppose, are his most well-known characters?

A Yes. The book was an immediate success. It's about a man who has two sides to his character, one good and one bad. The man, Dr Jekyll, has a battle inside himself between his good side and his evil side.

I This is the psychological idea of someone with a split personality?

A Yes. In everyday speech we say about someone 'Oh, he's a real Jekyll and Hyde', meaning there are two sides to their personality.

I Fascinating! Tell us about his personal life.

A As a child he was often ill. He married an American woman who had children from an earlier marriage, but they didn't have any children together. He travelled a lot, to Europe and the United States. He died very young, when he was just 44.

I Well, thank you, Alice, for telling us about Robert Louis Stevenson.

T 9.10 The strange case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde, by Robert Louis Stevenson

London, 1886

1 Late one night, a lawyer, Gabriel Utterson, was walking home through dark, silent streets when he saw a man attacking a woman.

Utterson ran after him and caught him. The man's name was Mr Hyde, and he looked ugly and evil.

2 Mr Hyde showed no regret for what he had done. To buy the woman's silence, he wrote her a cheque. Utterson noticed that the cheque was signed in the name of Dr Jekyll, a well-known and well-respected man.

3 Utterson was worried. He was Dr Jekyll's lawyer and also his friend. He went to visit him. As soon as he mentioned Mr Hyde, Dr Jekyll turned pale and became angry. Utterson was confused. Who was Mr Hyde?

4 A year passed. One night an old man was murdered as he was walking home. Mr Hyde had struck again! The police went looking for Hyde, but he had disappeared.

- 5 Again, Utterson went to visit his friend Dr Jekyll. He suspected that Dr Jekyll had helped Mr Hyde to escape. When questioned, the doctor replied in a strange, wild voice that Mr Hyde had gone forever.
- 6 Over the next few weeks Dr Jekyll's behaviour became more and more unusual. He locked himself in his laboratory and refused to open the door. His servants were worried. When they heard his voice, it sounded different. They asked Utterson for help.
- 7 Utterson and the servants broke down the door. Mr Hyde was lying dead on the floor. He had taken poison. But why was he wearing Dr Jekyll's clothes? And where was the doctor? Were Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde one and the same person?
- 8 On the desk was a letter addressed to Mr Utterson. In it, Dr Jekyll tried to explain himself. He said he believed that inside every human being there was a good side and an evil side.
- 9 Jekyll had created a potion. When he drank it, his whole body changed. The good, kind doctor became cruel, ugly, and evil. He called this other man Mr Hyde. To change back, he had to drink another potion.
- 10 But after a time Jekyll found that he liked changing into Mr Hyde. He enjoyed being bad. He became more and more violent and cruel. He took pleasure in hurting innocent people.
- 11 Finally Dr Jekyll couldn't control Mr Hyde anymore. He began to change into this monster even without taking the potion. Jekyll hoped and prayed that Hyde would disappear. But Hyde always returned.
- 12 The potion to turn Hyde back into Dr Jekyll no longer worked. It had lost its strength. Dr Jekyll could no longer get rid of the evil Mr Hyde. He had to kill this monster. But to kill Mr Hyde, Dr Jekyll also had to die ...

T 10.10*1 Henry

It's made for me. I'm a frustrated writer. One day maybe I'll write a novel. I write about my thoughts, my work, all my travels and I've even written a kind of work biography. I'm so pleased that I have so many visitors and comments. I feel in touch with the world. I tweet too.

2 Sandy

Yeah, I have an account and I go on it fairly often. I like sharing photos with friends. I love seeing their photos too, and it's a nice way of keeping up to date with them and sometimes making contact with old friends. I don't use it for anything more. Some people communicate a lot about their lives on it – I couldn't do that.

3 Liz

Actually it was a terrible shock. I went back to my machine and the screen was bright purple with large red letters across it saying WARNING. Everything was completely frozen. I rang the helpline and they said they'd had over fifty calls from people with same thing. It had even infected the Stock Exchange. Who are the sad individuals who do this, I want to know!

4 Martin

There aren't many left in my town. Just one, I think, on the High Street. It's because so many people have home computers and laptops these days and there are more and more places where you can access the Internet. I used them a lot when I was travelling.

5 Barry

I do so much online – I think I conduct most of my life online. I book everything – cinema, travel, my sports club; I shop online – clothes, food, presents; I check symptoms if I'm ill (actually, I've stopped doing this because I got too frightened by the answers); I download recipes. I could go on and on. I like the way 'google' has become a verb. I'm always saying 'I'll just google that and find out.'

T 10.11 *It drives me crazy!

A = Alan, J = Jack

- A Hi Jack! Over here! How was your journey?
J Huh! Not good! Not good at all.
A Why was that?
J Well, there was this girl in the seat behind and she was talking loudly on her mobile phone the whole journey. I know everything about her life. I even know what she's going to wear when she goes out on Saturday night and I know what she's not going to wear.
A That drives me mad too! You know, not long ago trains had quiet carriages where you couldn't use your mobile phone.
J Well, they don't anymore. I couldn't read my paper with her yak, yak, yakking behind me. She told the same thing to at least four friends. Then I had this kid opposite me with his mother. He ...
A What was he doing to annoy you?
J He had one of these mini-computer things ...
A A Game Boy!
J Yeah, one of those and he was head down playing this thing all the time – zing, ping, bang – all those noises coming from it. He never looked up once. When his mum asked him to say hello he just grunted, 'Uh!'. So impolite!

- A I know. Kids these days, they're so badly-behaved. Did you book your ticket online this time?
J I tried to.
A What happened?
J Well, I followed the instructions, one by one and got right to the end and it asked me for my password. Password? I didn't know I had one for train travel. So I thought 'OK, I'll ring instead.'
A Maybe not the best idea.
J Er- no so I rang the train company and of course I got the usual recorded message – you know the type of thing: 'I'm afraid all our operators are busy at the moment.' Then music and 'Thank you for holding. I'm afraid our operators are still busy.' And more music, so I gave up. I bought a ticket at the station.
A It drives you mad, doesn't it? Life's too short to spend so long on the phone. Still, I usually do enjoy travelling by train.

J Me too, usually. It's better than driving. I hate driving into town these days. There's too much traffic. It's just jam after jam. And it's impossible to find a parking space. Parking's a nightmare! And car parks and parking meters are so expensive.

A I know. I remember when you could park all day for 50p. Come on, let's get out of here. Let's get a coffee.

J OK, but not Starbucks. I can't stand Starbucks.

A Why? I like the coffee.

J It's the size of the cups. They're all huge. Even the small one is too big for me and the biggest is so big, it's enormous, and there's so much choice – latte, skinny latte, soya latte, cappuccino. Frappuccino, single shot, double sh ...

A OK! OK! Modern life! There's a small coffee bar round the corner. Let's go there.

T 11.4 I haven't seen you for ages!

S = Sophie, M = Mike

- S Mike! I'm over here!
M Sophie! You look great! You haven't changed a bit.
S Oh, I don't know. It's been over ten years. I'm definitely older if not wiser.
M Well, you look just the same to me. Come on! We've got over ten years to catch up on and not a lot of time! My plane leaves at 7.00 this evening.

S Tell me about you first. How long have you been working in Madrid? What are you doing there?

M Well, I work for a big international IT company and at the moment I'm based in Madrid. I've been there about eighteen months now.

S Wow, that sounds important. Are you enjoying it?

M Yeah, very much. But there's a chance that I'll have to move to Germany in three months. That's where the headquarters are.

S That sounds interesting too.

M Yeah, but I have a Spanish girlfriend now.

S Ah, I see. What's her name?

M Rosa. You'd like her – she's great fun. We've been going out nearly a year now.

S Whoah! That sounds serious. Does she speak English?

M Oh, yes. Her English is much better than my Spanish. I started going to Spanish lessons six months ago but I still find Spanish pronunciation's really difficult.

S I know.

M Oh, yeah you studied languages, didn't you?

S Yes, I studied French and German at university but I've also been trying learn Swedish for the last few years.

M Swedish! Why? Come on, now it's your turn Sophie. Tell me about you.

T 11.5

S = Sophie, M = Mike

M Tell me about you.

S Well, I got married a year ago to a Swedish guy. Ragnar, Ragnar Hansson.

M Where did you meet him?

S We met while I was working in Stockholm.

M What were you doing there?

S Well, after university I studied fashion design and my first job was in Sweden, as a buyer for H&M Fashion.

M Really! How long did you do that?

S I worked there for over three years. Ragnar was my boss.

M Ah, did you get married in Sweden?

S Yes, we did. My parents came over for the wedding.

M And do you still work in Sweden?

S No, we don't. We've both got new jobs in the UK.

M How long have you been back?

S About ten months. We've been trying to buy a flat since we got back.

M So, where have you been living?

S With my parents. They're lovely, but it's not great and we're expecting a baby next April, so we really need a place of our own.

M Oh, congratulations! I hope you find somewhere soon. Oh, look at the time, I'll have to rush to catch my plane.

S Bye, Mike. It's been great seeing you again. Let's keep in touch from now on.

M Yeah, it's been great. Maybe next time you can meet Rosa and I can meet Ragnar.

T 11.6 Alison's life

I didn't marry until quite late. I met Ben when I was 30 and we didn't marry until I was 33, that was in 2006. We got married in a church near where my mum lives. I had been engaged before that to another boy, Mark, we'd been together over ten years, since school in fact, and I think we just got bored with each other. Ben and I had a great honeymoon, we toured America, we were away for three weeks. And soon after that I found I was pregnant. That was Ellen, our first baby, she was born the year after we got married, and two years after that, in 2009, we had the twins, Tessa and Tom. They've been keeping us busy ever since! I'm exhausted most of the time but they're great fun. I'm really glad I married Ben, he's a great dad. I want it to be forever. My mum and dad divorced when I was just thirteen and I don't want us to do that.

T 11.7 Good news, bad news

- 1 A My wife had a baby last night.
B Congratulations! Was it a boy or girl?
A A boy. William James.
B How much did he weigh?
A 4.1 kilos.
B Ooh! A big boy! How are mother and baby doing?
A They're fine.
B That's wonderful. Give her my love when you see her.
A I will do. Thanks.
- 2 A Alfie and I have got engaged.
B That's fantastic news! Congratulations!
A Do you like my ring?
B Wow! Diamonds! It's beautiful. When's the wedding?
A We're thinking of getting married next spring.
B I hope I'm invited.
A Of course you are. I want you to be a bridesmaid.
B Really? I'd love that. I've never been one before.
- 3 A Have you heard about Bill and Josie?
B No! What's happened?
A Well, they've been having a tough time recently.
B I know, they haven't been getting on well at all.
A Mm. Well, they've finally decided to split up.
B I'm so sorry to hear that. What a shame!
A Yes, I always thought they were so good together.
- 4 A We lost Grandpa last week.
B I know. Your dad told me. I'm so sorry. He was a lovely man. Everyone was really fond of him.
A He and Grandma were together nearly 60 years.
B That's incredible. How old was he?
A 88.
B And how's your Grandma coping?
A She's OK. She's got her family around her.
B Well, I'm sure you all have wonderful memories of him.

T 12.1 Real possibilities

- A What are you doing this weekend?
B Mmm ... if the weather's nice, we'll go for a picnic.
- A Ooh! Sounds nice. Where to?
B Not sure. We might go to the park, or we might go to the country.
- A Well, I'm sure you'll have fun!

T 12.2

- 1 A What are you doing this weekend?
B Mmm ... if it's sunny, we'll go swimming.
- A Ooh! Sounds great! Where to?
B Don't know. We might go to the outdoor pool, or we might go to the river.
- A Well, I'm sure you'll have a good time!
- 2 A What are you doing this weekend?
B Mmm, well ... if it rains, we'll go shopping.
- A Sounds a good idea! Where to?
B Not sure. We might go to the High Street, or we might go to a shopping centre.
- A Well, I'm sure you'll enjoy it!
- 3 A What are you doing this weekend?
B Mmm ... if we have time, we'll see some friends.
- A Sounds good! What will you do?
B Don't know. We might go to a restaurant, or we might just go to the pub.
- A Well, I'm sure you'll have fun!

T 12.3 going to and might

- 1 A What are you going to do after school?
B I don't know. I might go home or I might go into town.
- 2 A Where are you going on your next holiday?
B I'm not sure. I might go to Spain, or I might go to Turkey.
- 3 A What are you going to study at university?
B I haven't decided. I might study languages, or I might study business.
- 4 A What are you going to buy Jane for her birthday?
B I'm not sure. I might buy her a T-shirt, or I might buy her some make-up.
- 5 A When are you going to see your boyfriend again?
B I don't know. I might see him on Friday night, or I might see him on Saturday afternoon.

T 12.4 Tara and Ben*1 Tara

When I leave school, first I'm going to have a few weeks' holiday. I'm going to see my brother in Italy. Then I'm going to university. I'm going to study economics. If I do well at university, I'll get a good job and if I get a good job, I'll earn lots of money! I hope so anyway!

2 Ben

I'm not very good at decisions. I don't really know what I want to do. I might go to work for my father. He's got a shop, but that's not very interesting. Or I might go travelling with my friend James. The problem is that I don't have much money. So I might get a job in a bar or a shop and save some. I'm quite good with computers, so I might do a course in computer programming. Who knows?

T 12.5 Advice, warnings, threats

- 1 If you take these pills, you'll feel better.
- 2 If you eat junk food, you'll get fat.
- 3 You'll fail your exams if you don't do your homework.
- 4 Careful! If you touch that, you'll get an electric shock!
- 5 If you don't do what I say, I'll kill you!

T 12.6 Lily's dream

I'd love a baby brother. If I had a baby brother, I would play with him all the time. We'd have a lot of fun. I'd be so happy! I wouldn't ask my mum and dad for anything else!

T 12.7*Sam's Dream

I'd like to be taller. If I were taller, I'd be in the first team at rugby. And if I played really well, I'd be captain. And then if I practised really hard, maybe one day I could play for England! My dad would be so proud of me!

Annie's Dream

I have two young kids. I love them, but I never have any time to myself. If I had a free weekend, I'd stay in bed all day. I'd read magazines and watch TV. Then I'd sleep all night and my children wouldn't wake me. Ah, Heaven!

T 12.8 Tony's life

Well, he's not much good at anything. He hasn't had a job since he left school so he hasn't got any money so he can't buy any new clothes. He never looks smart. And he doesn't know what kind of job he wants. He's not ambitious at all so he doesn't apply for many jobs. I think the problem is that he's lazy. He doesn't get up till midday. And he doesn't shave, and he doesn't even shower often. He doesn't look good. Maybe that's why he hasn't got a girlfriend. He's useless!

T 12.9 If Tony had a job, ...

If Tony had a job he'd have some money. If he had some money, he could buy some new clothes. If he had some nice clothes, he'd look smarter. If he was a bit more ambitious, he would apply for more jobs. If he weren't so lazy, he'd get up before midday. If he shaved and showered more, he'd look better. If he looked better, he might get a girlfriend and that would help him a lot.

T 12.10*1 Jimmy's problem

J = Jimmy, A = Amy

- J Amy, can I talk to you for a minute?
- A Sure. What about?
- J Well, I've got a bit of a problem. You know I'm in my first year at university. I'm really enjoying the course. I love what I'm doing, studying physics, but ...
- A I was waiting for a but!
- J Yes, you're right! But I'm also in a band. There are three of us, and we've been playing together for a couple of years, and we've just got a recording contract, which is something we've been trying to get for ages.
- A And you can't do both. Is that it?
- J Absolutely! The other guys want me to drop out of university. If the record was a success, we'd go on tour. We might go to Europe for three months, or we might even get to America! That would be amazing!
- A But if you dropped out of university and the band wasn't a success, then what would you do?
- J Exactly! That's the problem! But if I didn't give the band a chance, I'd regret it for the rest of my life! This is our one big chance!
- A But if the band didn't work, you wouldn't have a career.
- J And my parents would go crazy! Amy! Help me! What do I do?
- A Well, I think you should try with the band. If it doesn't work, it's not the end of the world. You could always go back to university. And you might hit the big time in the music business!

2 Fiona's problem

F= Fiona, J = Jenny

- F Jenny! You've got to help me!
- J What is it? Are you all right?
- F Yes, I'm fine, but I'm having terrible boyfriend trouble.
- J What, with Sam? I thought you two were fine?
- F We are, sort of. I'm very fond of Sam. We've been going out for over a year, and we do things together, but ...
- J But, but ...
- F But ... I've met this guy at work, and he's asked me out, and I don't know what to do!
- J Wow! This is sudden!
- F Well, not really. The thing is, everyone thinks that Sam and I are a couple and we're going to get married. But for me, Sam is more like a brother! I can't marry him! If I married Sam, I'd be so unhappy! But if I broke up with him, he would be heart-broken! I don't know what he'd do.
- J But it sounds like you have to say something. If you don't tell him now, it might be worse later. Who's this man at work?
- F Well, he's really lovely. His name's Harry. He's my age, and he's very good-looking. We work together, and it's such fun! He really makes me laugh. He isn't pushing me to go out with him, but ...
- J But you'd really like to. I know.
- F And if I don't say anything to him, he might think I don't like him. So what do I do?
- J Well, if I were you, I wouldn't say anything to this guy at work yet. Be nice to him, but don't encourage him.
- F But he might go out with another girl!
- J If he started going out with another girl, then you'd know what sort of man he was. If he likes you, he'll wait. But you have to talk to Sam first.

T 12.11 A year later*Jimmy

Well, we made a record, and we went on tour to Japan, and the band's doing really not bad! We haven't hit the big time, but we've had one or two hits, and we're very well-known in some parts of the world. We haven't been to America yet, but we hope to soon.

And my parents have been OK. Well, my mother has. My father keeps saying 'When are you going to get a real job?', but he doesn't approve of anything I do, so that's nothing new. So it was the right decision!

Fiona

Well, I told Sam, and in fact he was fine about it! He also said that he thought we were more like brother and sister! I was quite upset that he wasn't more upset! Anyway, he was all right about it. And of course all our friends said that they had seen this all along ...

So I broke up with Sam, and it didn't work out with Harry at all. It turned out that he was engaged to a lovely French girl, and he was just being friendly with me. So I got the situation completely wrong! Never mind. I'm single, but that's fine. I'll just see what happens.

T 12.12 Note-taking*Part 1

Generally I am optimistic about the future. If you go back to the beginning of the 19th century most Americans lived for about 50 years. Nowadays life expectancy is nearly 80 years. This is because of great improvements in healthcare and technology. There's no reason why this won't continue far into the 21st century. The world has changed so much in the last 20 years – we have DNA, microchips and the Internet. We must teach people to use this new technology. I believe that one day everybody will have computers and access to the Internet. For over two thousand years we have tried to understand our environment, now we are beginning to control it as well. We are learning how to control the weather and one day will learn to control earthquakes and volcanoes. Eventually illness and disease will not exist because we will build new body parts – new livers, kidneys, hearts, lungs – like spare parts for a car. People say world population is an increasing problem, but if people become more educated and richer, they won't need or want to have so many children and the population of many countries will decrease.

I believe that one day there will be a world government because the resources of the world will have to be managed at a global level. We need to make global decisions. We already have a world language called English and there is now a worldwide communication system called the Internet.

Part 2

I do have some reasons to be pessimistic. I think people will remain fundamentally the same. There will always be stupid people as well as intelligent people. There will always be cruel people who want to fight and wage wars. There will be people who don't understand that we have to look after our world, our forests, our oceans, our atmosphere. There will certainly always be people who think that money is everything. We have the technology, but we need the wisdom to go with it.

'What were you doing at 8.00 last night?' 'I was watching TV.'
When I woke up this morning, the sun was shining.

3.3 Past Simple and Past Continuous

- 2 A Past Simple action can interrupt a Past Continuous activity in progress.

Count nouns	Uncount nouns

► 4.2 Articles – a, an, and the

- 1 The indefinite article a or an is used with singular, count nouns to refer to a thing or an idea for the first time.

We have a cat and a dog.

There's a supermarket in Adam Street.

- 2 The definite article the is used with singular and plural, count and uncount nouns when both the speaker and the listener know the thing or idea already.

5.1 Verb patterns

Here are four verb patterns. There is a list of verb patterns on p158.

1 Verb + to + infinitive

They want to buy a new car. I'd like to go abroad.

2 Verb + -ing

We love going to parties. I enjoy travelling abroad.

3 Verb + -ing or + to + infinitive with no change in meaning

It started to rain/raining.

I continued to work/working in the library.

4 Verb + preposition + -ing

We're thinking of moving house.

I'm looking forward to having more free time.

like doing and would like to do

1 Like doing and love doing express a general enjoyment.

I like working as a teacher. = I am a teacher and I enjoy it.

I love dancing. = This is one of my hobbies.

2 Would like to do and would love to do express a preference now or at a specific time.

I'd like to be a teacher. = When I grow up, I want to be a teacher.

Thanks. I'd love to dance. = At a party. I'm pleased you asked me.

Question

Would you like to dance?

Would you like to come for a walk?

Short answer

Yes, I would./Yes, I'd love to.

Yes, I would./No, thank you.

Note

No, I wouldn't is not common because it is impolite.

5.2 Future forms

will

Form

will + infinitive without to

Will is a modal auxiliary verb. There is an introduction to modal auxiliary verbs on p143. The forms of will are the same for all persons.

Positive and negative

I/He/She/It/You/We/They	'll (will) won't	come. help you. invite Tom.
-------------------------	---------------------	-----------------------------------

Question

What time will he/you/they be back?

Short answer

Will you help me?

Yes, I will.

Note

No, I won't is impolite. It means 'I don't want to help you.'

A polite way of saying 'no' here is 'I'm afraid I can't.'

'Will you give me a lift?' 'Sorry, I'm afraid I can't.'

Use

Will is used:

1 to express a future intention made at the moment of speaking.

'It's Jane's birthday.' 'Is it? I'll buy her some flowers.'

I'll give you my phone number.

'Do you want the blue or the red pen?' 'I'll take the red one.'

2 to express an offer.

I'll carry your suitcase. We'll do the washing-up.

3 to express a future fact. The speaker thinks it is sure to happen in the future.

I'll be 30 next week. It will be a nice day tomorrow.

This use is called the pure future. The speaker is talking about the future without expressing an intention, plan, or personal opinion.

Form

am/is/are + going + to + infinitive

Positive and negative

I	'm (am) 'm not	going to leave.
He/She It	's (is) isn't
You We They	're (are) aren't

Question

When	am	I	going to arrive?
	is	he/she/it
	are	you/we/they

Short answer

Are they going to get married?

Yes, they are./No, they aren't.

Use

Going to is used:

1 to express a future decision, intention, or plan made before the moment of speaking.

How long are they going to stay in Rome?

She isn't going to have a birthday party.

2 when we can see or feel now that something is certain to happen in the future.

Look at these clouds! It's going to rain.

Watch out! You're going to drop that vase.

will or going to?

Look at the use of will and going to in these sentences.

I'm going to make a chicken casserole for dinner.

(I decided this morning and bought everything for it.)

What can I cook for dinner? Er ... I know! I'll make a chicken casserole! (I decided at the moment of speaking.)

Present Continuous

The Present Continuous for the future is used:

1 to express a planned future arrangement.

I'm meeting my cousin for lunch.

'What are you doing this weekend?'

'We're having a party. Can you come?'

2 with the verbs go and come.

She's coming on Friday.

I'm going home early tonight.

Sometimes there is little or no difference between going to and the Present Continuous to express a future arrangement.

We're seeing a film this evening.

We're going to see a film this evening.

 6.1 What ... like?

Form

what + to be + subject + like?

- |                                      |                                    |
|--------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| A What's your teacher like?   | B She's very patient.       |
| A What are his parents like?  | B They're very kind.        |
| A What was your holiday like? | B Wonderful. We swam a lot. |
| A What were the beaches like? | B OK, but some were dirty.  |

Note

- 1 We don't use like in the answer.
She's patient. NOT She's like patient.
- 2 Like in this question is a preposition, not a verb:
'What's Jim like?' 'He's intelligent and kind, and very good-looking.'
- 3 In these sentences like is a verb:
'What does Jim like?' 'He likes motorbikes and playing tennis.'

Use

- 1 What ... like? means 'Describe somebody or something. Tell me about it. I don't know anything about it.'
- 2 How's your mother? asks about health. It doesn't ask for a description.
'How's your mother?' 'She's very well, thank you.'

 6.2 Comparative and superlative adjectives

Form

- 1 Look at the chart.

		Comparative	Superlative
Short adjectives	cheap small *big	cheaper smaller bigger	cheapest smallest biggest
Adjectives that end in -y	funny early heavy	funnier earlier heavier	funniest earliest heaviest
Adjectives with two syllables or more	careful boring expensive interesting	more careful more boring more expensive more interesting	most careful most boring most expensive most interesting
Irregular adjectives	far good bad	further better worse	furthest best worst

*For short adjectives with one vowel + one consonant, double the consonant: hot/hotter/hottest; fat/fatter/fattest.

- 2 Than is often used after a comparative adjective.

I'm younger than Barbara.

Barbara's more intelligent than Sarah.

Much can come before the comparative to give emphasis.

She's much nicer than her sister.

Is Tokyo much more modern than London?

- 3 The is used before superlative adjectives.

He's the funniest boy in the class.

Which is the tallest building in the world?

Use

- 1 Comparatives compare one thing, person, or action with another.
She's taller than me.
London's more expensive than Rome.
- 2 We use superlatives to compare somebody or something with the whole group.
She's the tallest in the class.
It's the most expensive hotel in the world.
- 3 As ... as shows that something is the same or equal.
Jim's as tall as Peter.
I'm as worried as you are.
- 4 Not as ... as shows that something isn't the same or equal.
She isn't as tall as her mother.
He isn't nearly as clever as me!

UNIT 7

 7.1 Present Perfect

Form

have/has + -ed (past participle)

The past participle of regular verbs ends in -ed. There are many common irregular verbs. See the list on p158.

Positive and negative

I You/We/They	've (have) haven't	won a competition.
He/She/It	's (has) hasn't

Question

Have	I you/we/they	been to the United States?
Has	he/she/it

Short answer

Yes, I have./No, I haven't.

Yes, she has./No, she hasn't.

Note

We cannot use I've, they've, he's, etc. in short answers.

Yes, I have. NOT Yes, I've.

Yes, we have. NOT Yes, we've.

Use

- 1 The Present Perfect expresses an action or state which began in the past and continues to the present.

I've known John for six years.

How long have you worked for The London Gazette?

The time expressions for and since are common with this use.

We use for with a period of time, and since with a point in time.

We've lived here for three years. (a period of time)

They've lived here since 2010. (a point in time)

Note

In many languages, this use is expressed by a present tense. But in English, we say:

Peter has been a teacher for ten years.

NOT Peter is a teacher for ten years.

- 2 The Present Perfect connects the present and the past. It expresses experiences in life before now.

I've met a lot of famous people. (before now)

She has won a lot of awards. (in her life)

I've travelled a lot in Africa. (in my life)

She's written three books. (up to now)

The action can continue to the present, and probably into the future.

He's made six TV programmes. (So far. He'll probably make more.)

Ever and never are common with this use.

Have you ever been to Africa?

I've never played poker.

- 3 The Present Perfect expresses a past action with results in the present. It is often a recent past action.

I've lost my wallet. (I haven't got it now.)

The taxi's arrived. (It's outside the door now.)

Has the postman been? (Is there a parcel for me?)

The adverbs just, already, and yet are common with this use.

Yet is used in questions and negatives.

She's just had some good news.

I've already had breakfast.

It's 11.00 and she hasn't got up yet.

7.2 Present Perfect and Past Simple

- 1 Read and compare the use of the Past Simple and the Present Perfect in these sentences.

I lived in Paris for two years, from 2007–2009. (The action is finished.)

I've lived in London since 2009. (I still do. The action is not finished.)

I've been to Scotland. (This is an experience in my life.)

I went with my husband two years ago. (At a definite past time.)

'Have you ever flown in a helicopter?' 'Yes, I have.'

'Where did you fly?' 'I flew over New York.'

'Oh dear, I've broken my glasses.'

'What happened?'

I dropped them.'

- 2 These are common time expressions used with the Past Simple and the Present Perfect.

Past Simple	Present Perfect
last week	since Monday
yesterday	ever
the day before yesterday	never in 1999	just on July 21 st	already three months ago	yet
for two weeks (but now ended)	for two weeks (and continues)

8.1 have to

Form

has/have + to + infinitive

Positive and negative

I You/We/They	have don't have	to	work hard.
He/She It	has doesn't have

Question

Do	I/you/we/they	have to	work hard?
Does	he/she/it

Short answer

Yes, I do.

No, he doesn't.

Past of have to

The past tense of have to is had to, with did and didn't in the question and the negative.

I had to get up early this morning.

Why did you have to work last weekend?

I didn't have to do any housework when I was a child.

Use

- 1 Have to expresses strong obligation. The obligation comes from 'outside' – perhaps a law, a rule at school or work, or someone in authority.

You have to pass a driving test if you want to drive a car.
(That's the law.)

I have to start work at 8.00. (My company says I must.)
The doctor says I have to do more exercise.

- 2 Don't/doesn't have to expresses absence of obligation (it isn't necessary).

You don't have to do the washing-up. I've got a dishwasher.
She doesn't have to work on Monday. It's her day off.

I didn't have to get up early this morning, but I did get up because it was such a lovely day.

Note

Have got to is more informal. It usually expresses an obligation on one particular occasion.

Look at the time! I've got to go.

I'm going to bed. I've got to get up early tomorrow.

She's got to work hard. Her exams start next week.

The forms of have got to + infinitive are the same as have got + noun.

See p137.

8.2 Introduction to modal auxiliary verbs

Form

These are modal auxiliary verbs.

can could must shall should will would

They have certain things in common:

- 1 They go with another verb and add meaning.

*He can play the guitar.
I must wash my hair.*

- 2 There is no 's in the third person singular. The form is the same for all persons.

*She can dance very well.
He should try harder.
It will rain soon.
We must hurry.*

- 3 There is no do/does in the question.

*Can she sing?
Shall we go now?*

- 4 There is no don't/doesn't in the negative.

*I wouldn't like to be a teacher.
They can't speak French.*

Note

will not = won't

It won't rain tomorrow.

- 5 Most modal verbs refer to the present and future. Only can has a past tense form, could.

I could swim when I was three.

8.3 should

Form

should + infinitive without to

----------------------------	---------------------	---------------------------------

Do you think I/he/we should see a doctor?*

Should I buy a motorbike?*

Short answer
*Yes, you should.
No, you shouldn't.*

Use

*I should do more work. (This is my opinion.)
You should do more work. (This is my advice.)
Do you think we should stop? (I'm asking for your opinion.)*

- 2 Shouldn't expresses negative advice.

- 3 Should expresses the opinion of the speaker, and it is often introduced by I think or I don't think.

I don't think people should get married until they're 21.*

8.4 must

The forms of must are the same for all persons.

Positive and negative

I You/We/They He/She	must mustn't	try harder. steal.
----------------------------	-----------------	-----------------------

Note

Questions with must are possible, but have to is more common.
What time do we have to leave?

Use

- 1 Must expresses strong obligation. Generally, this obligation comes from 'inside' the speaker.

*I must have a shower. (I think this is necessary.)
We must get a new car.*

- 2 You must ... can express a strong suggestion.

*You must see the Monet exhibition. It's wonderful.
You must give me a call when you're next in town.*

UNIT 9

9.1 Past Perfect

Form

had + -ed past participle.

The past participle of regular verbs ends in -ed. There are many common irregular verbs. See the list on p158.

Positive and negative

I He/She/It You/We/They	'd (had) hadn't	arrived.
-------------------------------	--------------------	----------

Question

Had	I he/she/it we/you/they	left already?
-----	-------------------------------	---------------

Short answer

Yes, I had.

No, they hadn't.

Use

- 1 We use the Past Perfect to express an action in the past which happened before another action in the past.
When I arrived at the theatre, the play had already started.
- 2 We use the Past Simple to express actions in the order they happened. Look at these actions in the Past Simple.

Action 1

They walked a long way.

Action 2

The man came down from the tree.

I arrived.

They were tired.

Notice how they are expressed using the Past Perfect.

Action 2

The man came down from the tree ...

When I arrived at the party ...

Action 1

after the bear had gone.

because they'd walked a long way.

- 3 If it is clear that one action was completed before, it isn't necessary to use the Past Perfect.

I tidied up after everyone went home.

I tidied up after everyone had gone home.

9.2 Conjunctions

We use conjunctions to join sentences.

- 1 when, while, as soon as, after, before, as, and until, are conjunctions of time. They can go in two places in the sentence.

When I arrived home, Tom was cooking the meal.

Tom was talking to me while he was cooking the meal.

As soon as I arrived home, Tom started cooking the meal.

Tom cooked the meal after I arrived/I'd arrived home.

He had cooked the meal before I arrived home.

As he was talking, I was thinking about the last time we'd met.

He didn't start cooking the meal until I arrived home.

- 2 so is a conjunction of result.

He was bored so he went for a walk.

because is a conjunction of reason.

He went for a walk because he was bored.

- 3 but and although are conjunctions which join contrasting ideas.

It was raining, but we played tennis.

Although it was raining, we played tennis.

9.3 so, such (a), so many, so much

Form

so + adjective/adverb

I was so scared.

He always drives so fast.

such a + adjective + singular noun

She's such a nice person.

such + adjective + plural/uncountable noun

The Smiths are such friendly neighbours.

so many + plural nouns

Some children have so many toys.

so much + uncountable nouns

Footballers earn so much money these days.

Use

So and such are used for emphasizing an adjective or noun. They are used more in spoken than written English. They are often exclamations, with an exclamation mark (!).

He works so hard! is stronger than He works very hard.

UNIT 10

10.1 The passive

Form

am/is/are was/were has/have been will

+ -ed (past participle)

The past participle of regular verbs ends in -ed. There are many common irregular past participles. See the list on p158.

Present

English is spoken all over the world.

100 million mobile phones are thrown away every year.

Fiat cars aren't made in France.

Where is coffee grown?

Past

The first text message was sent in 1989.

They weren't injured in the accident.

When was television invented?

Present Perfect

A lot of new features have been added.

The bank's been robbed!

We haven't been invited to the wedding.

will

10,000 cars will be produced next year.

The cars won't be sold in the UK.

Short answers

Yes, they are./No, they aren't.

Yes, it has./No, it hasn't.

Yes, they will./No, they won't.

Are cars made in your country?

Has my car been repaired?

Will landline phones be replaced by mobiles?

Note

The passive infinitive (to be + -ed) is used after modal auxiliary verbs and other verbs which are followed by an infinitive.

Driving should be banned in city centres.

The house is going to be knocked down.

Use

- 1 The rules for tense usage in the passive are the same as in the active.

Present Simple to express habit:

My car is serviced regularly.

Past Simple to express a finished action in the past:

America was discovered by Christopher Columbus.

Present Perfect to express an action which began in the past and continues to the present:

'Smartphones' have been sold since 2007.

- 2 The object of an active verb becomes the subject of a passive verb. Notice the use of by in the passive sentence.

- 3 The passive is not just another way of expressing the same sentence in the active. We choose the active or the passive depending on what we are more interested in.

Hamlet was written in 1600. (We are more interested in Hamlet.)

Shakespeare wrote Hamlet in 1600. (We are more interested in who wrote it.)

Note

The subject of an active sentence is not mentioned in the passive sentence if it is not really important.

Active People speak German in parts of Italy.

Passive German is spoken in parts of Italy.

NOT German is spoken in parts of Italy by people.

11.1 Present Perfect Continuous*Form

has/have + been + -ing (present participle)

Positive and negative

I	've (have)	been working.
You We They	haven't
He She It	's (has) hasn't

Question

How long	have	I	been working?
		you we they
	has	he she it

Short answer

Have you been running?

Yes, I have./No, I haven't.

Use

The Present Perfect Continuous is used:

- 1 to express an activity which began in the past and continues to the present.

He's been teaching music for years.

It's been raining for days.

- 2 to refer to an activity with a result in the present.

I'm hot because I've been running.

I haven't got any money because I've been shopping.

Note

- 1 Sometimes there is little or no difference in meaning between the Present Perfect Simple and Continuous.

How long have you worked here?

How long have you been working here?

- 2 Some verbs have the idea of a long time – wait, work, learn, travel, play.

These verbs can often be found in the Present Perfect Continuous.

I've been waiting for hours.

Some verbs don't have the idea of a long time – find, start, buy, die, lose, break, stop. It is unusual to find these in the Present Perfect Continuous.

I've bought a new dress.

My cat has died.

My radio's broken.

- 3 Verbs that express a state – like, love, know, have (for possession), are not found in the Present Perfect Continuous.

We've known each other for a few weeks.

NOT We've been knowing each other for a few weeks.

- 4 If the sentence gives a number or a quantity, the Present Perfect Simple is used. The Continuous is not possible.

I've been writing emails all morning. I've written twenty.

NOT I've been writing twenty.

12.1 First conditional

Form

If + Present Simple, will + infinitive without to

Positive and negative

If I work hard, I'll pass my exams.

If we don't hurry up, we'll be late.

If you're late, I won't wait for you.

Question

What will you do if you don't go to university?

Will you go to university if you pass your exams?

Short answer

Yes, I will.

No, I won't.

Notes

- 1 English uses a present tense in the condition clause, not a future form.

If it rains, I'll stay home. NOT If it will rain ...
If I work hard, I'll pass. NOT If I'll work hard ...

- 2 The condition clause (if) can come at the beginning of the sentence or at the end. Notice the use of the comma.

If I work hard, I'll pass my exams.
I'll pass my exams if I work hard.

Use

The first conditional is used to express a possible condition and a probable result in the future.

If it's sunny, we'll go for a picnic.

You'll get wet if you don't take an umbrella.

If and when

If expresses a possibility that something will happen.

When expresses what the speaker sees as certain to happen.

When I get home, I'll have a shower. NOT If I get home

12.2 might

Form

might + infinitive without to

Might is a modal auxiliary verb. For an introduction to modal auxiliary verbs, see p143.

The forms of might are the same for all persons.

Positive and negative

I	might	go to the party.
He	might not	be late.
It		rain tomorrow.
We		go out for a meal tonight.

Note

The negative is often expressed with I don't think + will.

I don't think it'll rain tomorrow.

Question

The inverted question Might you ...? is unusual. It is very common to ask a question with Do you think ... + will ...?

Do you think	it'll rain? they'll come to our party?

Short answer

Do you think it'll rain? It might.

Use

Might is used to express a future possibility. It means will perhaps.

It contrasts with will, which expresses a future certainty.

England will win the match.

(I am sure they will.)

England might win the match.

(It's possible, but I'm not sure.)

12.3 Second conditional

Form

If + Past Simple, would + infinitive without to

Would is a modal auxiliary verb. There is an introduction to modal auxiliary verbs on p143.

The forms of would are the same for all persons.

Positive and negative

If I had more money, I'd (would) buy a new computer.

If she knew the answer, she'd tell us.

If I didn't like you, I wouldn't talk to you.

Question

What would you do if you had a year off?

Short answer

Yes, I would.

No, I wouldn't.

If they had the money, would they buy a new car?

Yes, they would.

No, they wouldn't.

Notes

- 1 As with the first conditional, the condition clause can come at the beginning or the end of the sentence.

If I had more time, I'd help.

I'd help if I had more time.

- 2 Were is often used instead of was in the condition clause.

If I were you, I'd go to bed.

If he were taller, he'd be a policeman.

- 3 The use of the past tense (If I had) and would does not refer to past time. It expresses distance from the present and unreality because it is different from the facts we know.

If I had ... (but I don't have ...)

I would ... (but I won't ...)

Use

- 1 The second conditional is used to express an unreal or improbable condition and its result. The use of the past forms show that is not reality.

If I were the President, I'd stop all war. (But I'm not the President. = reality)

If I lived in a big house, I'd have a party. (But I live in a small flat.)

- 2 The phrase, If I were you, I'd ..., is often used to give advice.

If I were you, I'd call the doctor.

First and second conditional

The first conditional is possible and probable.

The second conditional is improbable and sometimes impossible.

If I win the tennis match, I'll be so happy. (I think it's possible.)

If I won the tennis match, I'd be so happy. (But I don't think I will.)

Chinese vase sells for £53 million

A woman who lives in a suburb of north-west London was clearing out the house of her brother who recently died. She found a vase that her brother kept on a shelf in his dining room.

She said that her brother was very fond of the vase, although she didn't really like it herself.

A local antique shop thought it was worth about £800. So she asked an auction house to look at it, and they discovered it was from the Qianlong period, and dated it from the mid 18th century.

Yesterday it sold for £53 million to a Chinese buyer. The woman's son said that his mother was at first surprised, then amazed, then totally breathless.

Texting woman falls into fountain

A woman who fell into a fountain while she was shopping is becoming an international hit on YouTube.

A video of her falling into the water went online last Friday, and since then 1.8 million people have watched it.

The woman was in a shopping mall in Nottingham in the UK. She was walking along the mall and texting at the same time, so she wasn't looking where she was going. Security cameras filmed her as she fell into a fountain. Fortunately the water wasn't very deep. When she climbed out of the fountain, she finished sending her text, then carried on walking down the mall.

The app that saved an iPad

A thief who stole an iPad led police straight to his door, as the owner had an app called 'Find my iPad'.

Ronald Bowe, 59, from Gateshead, stole the hand-held computer from a bag in St Nicholas's Cathedral, Newcastle, while its owner, Xin Shi, was praying.

Mr Xin reported the theft to the police, then realised he could use the app to find out where his iPad was. The GPS app gives the location of the computer.

Police followed the app to Bowe's house, where they found a bag containing the iPad, a mobile phone, a wallet, and a bank card.

Bowe was found guilty and will be sentenced at a later date.

STEVEN SLATER ADMITS GUILT

The American flight attendant, who received world-wide attention in the summer and became a media and Internet sensation, appeared in court yesterday.

He admitted that he lost his temper, put the lives of passengers in danger, and caused damage to the plane when he activated the emergency chute.

Slater will have one year of counselling for anger management and treatment for alcohol abuse. If he doesn't complete the treatment, he could go to prison for one to three years.

He also has to pay a fine of $10,000 to JetBlue for damage to the plane.

Slater is currently unemployed.

Discussion

5 Look at the situations. Talk together. What would you do?

Dilemma 1 You've been offered a job on the other side of the world. You would earn a lot of money, but you'd have to leave all your family and friends.

Dilemma 2 Your friend James is always in trouble. He says to you one day, 'If anyone asks you, tell them I was with you last night. OK?'

Dilemma 3 You go to a party where you meet someone and fall totally and hopelessly in love. At the end of the evening, he/she says to you, 'Let's get married tonight!'

Dilemma 4 At work your boss gives you lots of praise and a pay rise for an idea you had. In fact it was a colleague's idea that you stole.

Dilemma 5 You have neighbours who you really don't get on with. They are on holiday when you see that their house is on fire.

Dilemma 6 A well-known politician is telling the press stories about his/her childhood. In fact, you went to school with this politician and you know that what he/she is saying is all lies.

Dilemma 7 You are shopping in a supermarket. When you come out, you realise that you accidentally put something in your bag and didn't pay for it.

WRITING – Building a story

A fishy tale

Ten days ago businessman, Andrew Cheatle, was walking on the beach near his home in Worthing, Sussex, when he lost his mobile phone. It fell into the water and unfortunately a wave took it out to sea. One week later fisherman, Glen Kerley, was on his boat catching fish to sell in the market. The same day, back on land, he was preparing the fish for sale when he noticed something metal inside a cod fish. It was a mobile phone. Glen couldn't believe it. The phone was smelly and dirty, but amazingly it still worked so Glen called some of the contact numbers. Soon he had a reply.

Andrew was out shopping for a new mobile phone with his girlfriend, Rita Smith, when her phone rang. Incredibly she said 'It's for you! It's a call from your phone.' Glen told Andrew the fishy tale of how he found the phone. They met the next day and he returned it to an amazed Andrew, who still uses it.
